Dear Ms. Chavez,

The purpose of this correspondence is to relate to you the evidence before the Office of Equal Opportunity (OEO) with regard to the above-referenced civil rights claim. Eva Chavez (herein Complainant), Graduate Student, asserts that she was subjected to Sexual Harassment. Complainant asserts that Nick Flor (herein Respondent), Associate Professor, Anderson School of Management, subjected her to this form of discrimination.

This policy can be found on the UNM Policy Office website at <http://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/index.html>.

II. INVESTIGATION

Jurisdiction and Scope

The University of New Mexico is committed to creating and maintaining a community in which students and employees can learn and work together in an atmosphere that enhances productivity and draws on the diversity of its members, and is free from all forms of disrespectful conduct, intimidation, exploitation, and harassment. The purpose of University Administrative Policy (UAP) 2740 is to guide University officials to take whatever action is needed to prevent, correct, and when necessary, discipline behavior that violates University policy or policies.

The OEO is an independent, impartial and neutral campus entity designated to ensure compliance with all University policies that apply to civil rights including investigations of any allegations of civil rights violations under UAP Policy 2740. The University prohibits harassment on the basis of sex, gender, race, color, religion, disability, age, national origin, ancestry and any other characteristic protected under applicable law. When University faculty, administrators, and supervisors witness or receive a written or oral report or complaint of discrimination or harassment, they are required to engage in appropriate measures to prevent violations of this policy and promptly notify the OEO, including notification of any actions taken to achieve informal resolution of the complaint.

The OEO has sole discretion to determine which specific allegations it will investigate and the manner in which it will conduct the investigation.¹ When investigating an allegation of civil rights violations, the OEO acts as the finder of fact and prepares an investigative report at the conclusion of the investigation. Evidence Gathering

The OEO gathers information it deems pertinent to the investigation. Parties to the case may submit any documentation they believe should be considered, and may identify any witnesses they believe should be interviewed. The OEO may also identify documents and witnesses not identified by parties to the case if the OEO determines such documents may be relevant to its investigation or the witnesses may have information relevant to the investigation. The OEO may also receive information from other University offices as appropriate or review public sources.

The OEO has sole discretion to determine which witnesses and documentation will be considered, the relevance of the information to the investigation, and what, if any weight and credibility to assign that information.

The OEO does not have subpoena authority or other authority to compel document production or witness participation. Document production and witness participation is therefore voluntary; however, the University strongly encourages all members of the University community to participate in OEO investigations and provide information when the OEO requests it pursuant to its role as investigator.

III. INVESTIGATIVE BACKGROUND

The record shows OEO contacted Complainant on July 13, 2018 in regards to a complaint filed against her and met with Complainant on July 25, 2018 to discuss the allegations against her. At this meeting Complainant reported that she had been harassed by Respondent and requested to file a formal complaint.

Melissa Valdez-Lopez (herein Valdez-Lopez), EEO Compliance Specialist, was initially assigned the investigation.

Valdez-Lopez informed Complainant about OEO's investigative procedure, his rights and responsibilities, confidentiality, and the University's anti-retaliation policy. Complainant provided a verbal complaint to Valdez-Lopez on July 25, 2018, naming Respondent. Complainant elected to have a support person present at the meeting.

On August 1, 2018, Complainant was informed OEO accepted jurisdiction of the issues she presented.

On August 3, 2018, Complainant was informed that Ben FitzSimons (herein the investigator), a third-party, contracted investigator, had been contracted to conduct the investigation. The investigator contacted Complainant via email on August 10, 2018 and August 14, 2018. Complainant responded on August 14, 2018 and arrangements were made to speak on the telephone on August 21, 2018.

A draft Confirmation of Allegations was provided to Complainant on August 22, 2018. Complainant noted a number of revisions in her Confirmation of Allegations and requested an extension of the deadline to provide the revisions. Complainant was informed any additional information and evidence would be included in the Draft Report. On September 11, 2018, Complainant confirmed the issues to be investigated via a signed Confirmation of Allegations.

The record shows the investigator contacted Respondent via email on August 10, 2018. Respondent responded on August 10, 2018 and arrangements were made to speak on the telephone on September 12, 2018.²

The investigator provided Respondent a draft Confirmation of Response on September 25, 2018, and he returned the Confirmation of Response on September 30, 2018, with revisions. On October 2, 2018, the investigator provided Respondent with a revised Confirmation of Response, which he signed and returned on October 2, 2018.

² Note that Respondent also has an active OEO investigation as Complainant and the telephone meeting regarding that claim occurred on an earlier date.

OEO Case #I-2018-08-43
November 28, 2018

Relevant emails, text messages, and information provided by Complainant and Respondent is summarized under Documentary Evidence. No other witnesses or relevant documentation was identified.

IV. COMPLAINANT'S STATEMENT

Complainant described the relevant events establishing the basis of this claim as follows (edited):

Sexual Harassment

- Complainant states that she first met Respondent on May 9, 2018.
- Complainant states that approximately 10 years ago her brother had taken an undergraduate course with Respondent and suggested that if the opportunity ever presented itself, she should try to take a course with him. Complainant states that after meeting Respondent for the first time, she considered taking one of his courses in the future, if there were to be a graduate-level option available.
- Complainant states that she sent Respondent an email, via their UNM email accounts, on May 11, 2018 to inquire whether he was teaching any graduate-level classes.
- Complainant states she and Respondent began to exchange emails and that on May 13, 2018, Respondent suggested they switch to personal email accounts, citing that UNM email could be "spied on."
- Complainant states that shortly after switching to personal Gmail accounts Respondent began to talk about them working together and publishing together. Complainant states that Respondent indicated that he and Complainant were best friends. Complainant states that Respondent indicated that they were destined to meet.
- Complainant states that she and Respondent created a spreadsheet to track all of the things they were going to do together and that they both added entries and updated the list (emailing the revised spreadsheet back and forth with the updates).
- Complainant states she does not recall if she asked about a job opportunity or if Respondent originally offered, but that on May 21, 2018, Respondent initiated a formal request to hire her as a Project Assistant.
 - Complainant states this communication was sent by Respondent through the University of New Mexico's email system to Robin Luann Love, Tammy Cline, and Darlene Trujillo. The budget was $703. Complainant states the subject line of the email initiated by Respondent was Need to Hire PA for Index Code: 224384.
- Complainant states that on May 23, 2018 she told Respondent she had not consumed alcohol in 18 months. Complainant states Respondent began indicating to her that he would "get her to drink alcohol again". Complainant states that these types of comments concerned her and raised "red flags" in regards to working with an instructor who jokingly (or not) made these types of comments to a student and potential PA employee.
- Complainant states that around May 26, 2018 Respondent initiated multiple communications of an explicit sexual nature. Complainant states examples include, but are not limited to:
 - An email sent on May 26, 2018 where Respondent told Complainant he wanted to "make love" to her at school in his new office. Complainant asserts Respondent indicated he wanted it to happen soon, and in real-life. Complainant states she responded that it was not a good idea and asked why he wanted to do that. Complainant states Respondent replied, "So when I go into my office I'll always remember you."
 - An email sent on May 27, 2018 where Respondent stated that he "needed to be deep inside" the Complainant "from behind," with a mirror in front of them so he could see himself caressing Complainant while he was "lost deep inside" of her. Complaint states Respondent indicated he wanted to do this until he could not take it any longer and that he would "risk everything" to "explode inside" of Complainant while whispering her name, "Eva...mmm."

OEO Case #I-2018-08-43
November 28, 2018

- An email sent on June 5, 2018 where Respondent stated to Complainant, "...and we're doing it with no protection because it feels so good and I know I should stop but all I can do is whisper your name over and over 'Eva, mmm...'"
- An email sent on June 5, 2018 where Respondent stated to Complainant, "Just imagine me on top of you, our bare skin sliding over each other, my mind telling me to stop before I explode, but my body thrusting deeper in you... while I whisper 'Eva we have to stop...mmm Eva, we have to ... mmm Eva.'"
- Complainant states that she was uncomfortable with and did not know how to respond to the Respondent's messages of a sexual nature, however, she initially did respond based on the promises he made about working together on projects including the offered Project Assistantship, as well as publishing articles and books together.
- Complainant states that another reason she responded to Respondent's messages was due to the inherent power differential involved because Respondent was an instructor and the supervisor, and Complainant was a student and subordinate. Complainant states this element created an awkward and confusing dynamic that she felt could possibly hurt her education, employment, future assistantships or job opportunities, recommendations for graduate study, promotion, etc. Complainant states she was concerned that "a teacher or supervisor can have a decisive influence on a student's or employee's success and future career at the University and beyond" as stated in the University's Policies and Procedures.
- Complainant states she was also fearful that Respondent would retaliate against her if she reported her concerns.
- Complainant is unsure of the exact date, but states that she was concerned that the Project Assistantship job opportunity was not worth it based on the hours and pay (~4 hours per week for 8 weeks), and due to the instructor's messages of an explicit (and implicit) sexual nature. Complainant states she sent Respondent an email expressing these concerns.
- Complainant states that after she expressed concerns, Respondent's communication changed. Complainant states that she sent Respondent multiple emails to ask him to talk to her about the job (and other things Respondent had suggested, like publishing articles and books together) and that he would not do so.
- Complainant states Respondent eventually told her he was going to spend the $703 on "brain wave equipment" instead of the Project Assistantship because "the brain wave equipment opens up many more research avenues."
- Complainant asserts that submission to Respondent's emails of a sexual nature was an implied condition of the Project Assistantship job opportunity and that when she voiced a concern about the job, and working with Respondent, she was denied the job opportunity.
- Complainant also asserts that submission to Respondent's emails of a sexual nature was the intent and basis for Respondent offering the Project Assistantship to Complainant.

Retaliation

- Complainant states that on June 24, 2018 at 10:28 am she expressed her intent (to Respondent) to reply back to the UNM PA emails screenshots of Respondent's emails of an explicit sexual nature, and state on the email reply, "Has anybody heard from Nick? He sent me the attached correspondence on June 5th, and I have not heard much from him since?"
- Complainant states that on June 27, 2018 at 2:31 pm she responded to the same email (mentioned above with subject line: Mary Margaret Rogers) and expressed her intent to reply back to the UNM PA emails with screenshots of Respondent's emails of an explicit sexual nature. Complainant asserts in this second email she stated, "Just curious as to if you think I'm kidding when I say I am going to go back on that PA email and send the screenshots attached and asked if anybody has heard from you?"
- Complainant states that on July 2, 2018 at 8:07 am she expressed her intent to report what she perceived as Respondent's sexual misconduct to Kathryn Jacobson, Associate Dean at the Anderson School of Management, stating, "BTW, I'm meeting with Kathryn Jacobson next week...and not on my own volition

November 28, 2018

(nor did I set the meeting up myself, believe it or not)it was requested of me...” Complainant states she then mentioned, “Wish we could’ve touched based prior to and after you blatantly ignoring me because I’m confused as what to say or not say...but I suppose I’ll just take your advice.”

- Complainant states that on July 2, 2018 at 9:56am, Respondent texted, “Please stop communicating with me.” Complainant asserts this was the first time Respondent had asked her to stop communicating with him.
- Complainant states that on July 2, 2018 at 1:16 pm she received an email titled “Communication Ban and Behavioral Expectations” from the Dean of Students office.
- Complainant states that Respondent requested a “Communication Ban” from the Dean of Students office because she expressed her intent to report concerns regarding Respondent’s sexual misconduct.
- Complainant states that the action taken by Respondent that initiated the “Communication Ban and Behavioral Expectations” correspondence negatively affected her reputation and educational experience at the University and, as such, may have negatively affected her educational advancement opportunities at the University as well as future employment opportunities at the University.

V. RESPONDENT’S STATEMENT

Respondent’s statement (edited):

Sexual Harassment

- Respondent states that on or about May 10, 2018 Complainant introduced herself to him in a copy room. Respondent states that Complainant said something like, “Hey, are you Nick Flor, my brother had a class with you. You’re a great instructor.”
- Respondent states he had never met Complainant before.
- Respondent states that on May 11, 2018 Complainant sent him an email and that they quickly developed an online friendship.
- Respondent states that he never met Complainant in person again, that he and Complainant spoke on the telephone approximately three (3) times, and that the rest of their communication occurred via email, text messages, and social media.
- Respondent states that he suggested moving their email conversation to personal email accounts because Complainant wanted to gossip about other faculty and she asked where to send the gossip.
- Respondent states that Complainant initiated conversations about them working together and that Complainant initiated the discussion regarding a possible Project Assistantship.
- Respondent states that complainant initiated conversation regarding publishing a report together about propaganda in the book 1984. Respondent states that the Project Assistantship offer that he made to Complainant would have been paid out of a grant and that publishing is a standard action when working under a grant.
- Respondent states that they used the nickname “B” for one another, and complainant suggested that it stood for “bff”, which she clarified as “best friends forever”, and that they both discussed it.
- Respondent states that in her very first e-mail to him, Complainant said they were destined to meet and requested to meet and chat. Respondent states that Complainant initiated social topics, including the “synchronicity” of their meeting and meeting in past lives, that she frequently referenced the song “Past Lives” by Borns, that she stated she was communicating with him in the past using the number 3:33. Respondent states that he initially started to believe her but ultimately did not, and Respondent states that is one of the key reasons he ended their relationship.

OEO Case #I-2018-08-43
November 28, 2018

- Respondent states that Complainant initiated and created a spreadsheet to track things they had planned to do together, that she demanded that he add to it, and that they both added to it.
- Respondent states that he told Complainant he would get her to drink again “once a day” after she stated she had not consumed alcohol in 18 months, but that he had previously told her he liked only one drink a day to relax, and that he made it clear to her that the statement was a joke and that he was not going to get her drinking again; he did not say anything like it again after Complainant indicated she was serious.
- Respondent states that although he made the first comments of an explicitly sexual nature, Complainant initiated the sexual communication. As examples, Respondent states that Complainant told him “cuddling” was better than swimming when discussing ways to ease her chronic pain on May 24, 2018 and that Complainant kept a conversation on May 25, 2018 focused on “romance” after he attempted to redirect it.
- Respondent states that all communication of a sexual nature was consensual (based on Complainant’s responses and interaction) and that Complainant encouraged Respondent to tell “romantic stories.” Respondent also states that Complainant indicated she wanted to have “lots of” sex with him to remove her pain.
- Respondent states that Complainant never expressed that she was concerned about the communication of a sexual nature and that she never asked him to stop communicating in that manner.
- Respondent states that the only concern that Complainant voiced was that the Project Assistantship was not enough hours to be worth it to her so she ultimately turned it down.
- Respondent denies that submission to emails of a sexual nature was an implied condition of the Project Assistantship job opportunity and that when Complainant voiced a concern about working with Respondent, she was denied the job opportunity.
- Respondent denies that submission to communication of a sexual nature was the intent and basis for Respondent offering the Project Assistantship to Complainant.

Retaliation

- Respondent states that Complainant never expressed to him that she perceived their sexual communication as harassing or misconduct.
- Respondent states that after he expressed to Complainant that he could not be her close friend or have a romantic relationship with her, and that after he liked a tweet from a former female student on Twitter, that Complainant threatened to forward their prior sexual communication to multiple individuals at the University. Respondent states these threats did not express that Complainant felt the communication was harassment or misconduct, rather that Complainant was angry that Respondent would no longer engage in the behavior and wanted revenge, and that Complainant stated she was willing to lie to get revenge.
- Respondent states that he did not request the stop contact email from the Dean of Students office; the office offered to send the email after viewing text messages that Complainant sent to Respondent.

But now that I'm beginning to understand the pain you're in and the end-of-cycles, maybe that's not the kind of friend you need" and that "Anyway, different topic: Re: research assistantship: 8 hours, four weeks, diagram the flower reproductive ecosystem (pollen birds, bees), co-author paper. Shall we do it? That would be fun." (6:00 am)
 - Complainant responding that she does not understand the "circumstances" that make it so Respondent can't respond to her emails and, as it relates to the offer of the assistantship, "I do not think we should do it (for various reasons) ... mainly because I truly valued our friendship that much more, but now I'm wondering where our friendship even stands based off your responses to me... but I did not want to complicate things and how much I appreciate you, for such a small amount of money and hours when I already know for I fact I will work WAY more than 8 hours per week and already have, and I do not want to be bamboozled either, and I wanted more so to maintain our friendship..... " Also Complainant indicating she would like work with Respondent outside of the University and that "I want to work with you, and I want to help you. And I do think we kind of NEED to work together, for various and different reasons as well. (7:27 am)
- Email initiated by Complainant on June 9, 2018 (titled "Inbox" sent at 6:40 pm), references Complainant indicating she misses receiving messages from Respondent and mentioning again, as it relates to Respondent's research idea, "I also wasn't kidding that it kind of turns me on, when I said that in my message the other day." Exhibit D4.

Also references Complainant stating, "And just some insight for you; it is not really those broken promises and your short email responses that kept me going...(nor the broken friendship promises). In actuality, it was instead the idea of a 'romantic friend,' and the sparks of those thoughts (that came out of nowhere), and a lot of those aspects that I had not thought about or felt in a while...that kept me going..." and "In the process, you helped me realize that is the type of friend I actually need, more so a 'romantic friend' or person...or at least someone who can grasp me (PlanetEva) in those aspects" Exhibit S4.

Also references Respondent responding on June 21, 2018 at 7:14 am, "Yep, going well. I just had to run analytics on this #solar, that's the part that's taking a long time. It's based on a revision of a paper I had done earlier on how to spread scientific information virally" and Complainant responding "glad things are going so well for you and you're just going to disregard anything about me and my desperate pleas and suicidal nature of literally not wanting to deal with any of this anymore....THANKS FRIEND! KINDA RUDE OF YOU! But hip hip hooray for you and glad it's going so well!!" on June 21, 2018 at 8:16 am. Exhibit U4.

- Email from Complainant on June 22, 2018 (titled "Re: Catch" sent at 1:50 am), references Complainant expressing her anger that Respondent followed up on an earlier agreement to play catch by suggesting that they throw a football next time they see each other at the Anderson School of Management rather than throwing a baseball at a park away from the campus. Also references Complainant stating that Respondent was "the one that first called me babe, and lover, and all sorts of things, and asked if you could kiss my neck while caressing my back; and a whole series of other intimate aspects and empty promises; and then you are just going to randomly pretend like none of [it] happened and send me this ridiculous couple line email and tell me you want to be my 'real friend' now when you never treated me as a 'real friend' nor even responded to any of my commentary WHATSOEVER in regards to anything of that or why you tried to pull back and pretend non[e] of it happened it the first place, and like if we were actually 'real friends' as you claim to be?" and "I did not really see you as the type of person to behave in such ways and manners, but i would truly appreciate more of a response in regards to all of this." Exhibit W4.
- Emails initiated by Complainant on June 24, 2018 (titled "Mary Margaret Rogers" and "Man on Pause"), reference Complainant threatening to send clips of earlier communication of a sexual nature composed by Respondent to the department chair and administrative staff if Respondent does not respond to her. Specifically, "Imagine me replying to those UNM PA-ship emails (with all those ladies included) and say, 'Has anybody heard from Nick? He sent me the attached correspondence on June 5th, and I have not heard much from him since?' I do not know what any of those ladies' faces look like (as I have not met them in person yet, other than Robin and her intense black eye that one time)....Nonetheless, even though I do not know what their faces look like, it's still fun to picture and imagine what their faces would look like if I were to send them those screenshots (attached) with that short message through the UNM email," and "I think you'll be alarmed once I actually do what I say I was going to do in that email, to the ladies on the PA-ship email, simply to prove a point in regards to your non-responses as well as ignoring my messages" and "I'm likely going to have to tell him [Raul Gouvea] that I sent you all those messages, screenshots and videos of him because as of right now, that's really the only thing you could hold against me; and he is my friend so I would rather just be honest with him as to what I did and why I did it, and also so that you do not have anything to hold against me...." Exhibit X4.
- Email initiated by Complainant on June 25, 2018 (titled "We need to chat" sent at 11:00 am), references Complainant sending a screenshot of a phone call she made to Respondent and stating, "And if you are not going to have any respect at all to respond to my messages, then please return my phone calls, because I will continue to contact you until all of this is addressed.... and if you continue to avoid me and my messages, I will just have to address it all directly with Mary Margaret Rogers because trust me, it will be addressed!" Exhibit Y4.

- Text messages sent by Complainant beginning on June 25, 2018 through July 2, 2018, reference Complainant threatening to send clips of earlier communication of a sexual nature composed by Respondent to various individuals at the University if Respondent does not respond to her. Exhibit Z4.
- Email initiated by Respondent on June 26, 2018 (titled "Got your text" sent at 7:08 am), references Respondent stating, "Yo Eva, got your message. Well here's the thing, at the end of the semester, when we first started communicating, I had a lot of free time, but after my MIT presentation many research opportunities opened up so I've been focusing on my research — that and a new online course, which has to be completed by July. Bottom line: these things have to get done over the summer, so I don't have a lot of free time anymore. I'll be minimizing my time on all communications and social media until I finish. But I will get to your messages eventually. Stay well." Exhibit A5.
- Email initiated by Complainant on June 27, 2018 (titled "Just curious though...." sent at 10:41 pm), references sending Complainant stating, "You want me to just continue heckling you until I do things that you would not believe I would do based off how you've acted and treated me..... ? Just go ahead and respond to that and it would be great ... the more you do not respond, the more it will continue to become an issue.... like I already told you...." Exhibit B5.
- Email initiated by Complainant on June 28, 2018 (titled "You, and your cousin too" sent at 6:40 am), references Complainant stating, "I suppose I'll await to see if or how you respond to me,,, (and all my countless messages and direct questions that you have not responded to) before I ignorantly and carelessly forward any emails on....or create and send new ones to people I should not be sending those emails to under these conditions...." Also at 3:49 pm, Complainant stating, "Just want to make sure that you received this, that you understand the importance of it, as well as the fact that I do indeed expect a response from you. If you do not respond I'll either forward it on or written [sic] it for Mary Margaret Rogers, Kathryn Jacobson, Craig White and/or whoever else needs to address it since you are not addressing it responding to any of it" Exhibit C5.
- Email initiated by Complainant on June 29, 2018 (titled "Fw: The 'Cool People' Club," sent to Respondent's UNM email address at 6:33 am), references Complainant stating, "and in reality, next week i will look back on this all and laugh and think 'wow, that was intense, and perhaps irrational too,' or maybe even 'i should have never sent those intimate messages nick sent me to MMR or KJ, or even CW' or to any of those other ladies just to smile about what their (as well as Nick's reaction must have been)- but when i am calm, cool, and collected and thinking those thoughts.(and humorously laughing in hind sight)... and you are wondering why i caused you so much stress and trouble and why i did this all.... I am certain that you will not be laughing next week, when i am... and when all the intensity has died down," and " and the most hilarious part of all of this is that all you had to do was get in touch with me and chat with me like a real man and person (and not the child that you are acting like by avoiding me) and literally none of this would have happened," and a quote from an earlier email " 'if you're my friend, truly - then you can know you can TRUST me 100%. that i will never intentionally hurt or attack you, frustrate you etc. However, on the other hand, if you are not my friend, that is a different story and i can 100% not make those promises....'" Exhibit D5.
- Text message initiated by Complainant on June 29, 2018 at 12:25 pm, references Complainant stating, "Hey, I promise I won't do any of those things I said I would do, not send you any more emails. Something happened, and it's not good. I genuinely apologize fir [sic] any distress I have caused you. It really was not intentional. Just know that you hurt me, that's all." Also references text message sent at 12:26 pm stating, "I'll leave you alone now. If of [sic] you ever do decide to message me, and you never hear back. Please do not be alarmed as well. Thank you sincerely for that 2-weeks or so of happiness that you brought into my life... of which I truly thought was authentic and genuine. I thought you were a supportive friend. Thanks for that, whether it was real or not. Take care nick [followed by emoji of a crying face, a flower, and praying hands]." In Exhibit Z4.

- Text messages initiated by Complainant on July 2, 2018 at 8:07 am, references Complainant stating that she has been asked to meet with Kathryn Jacobson and that "Wish we would've touched base prior to and after you blatantly ignoring me because I'm confused as what to say and not say...but I suppose I'll just take your previous advice" and referencing Respondent's prior email encouraging Complainant to be honest in providing feedback. In Exhibit Z4.
- Text message initiated by Respondent on July 2, 2018 at 9:56 am, references Respondent stating "Please stop communicating with me." In Exhibit Z4.

Hello Dr Professor Nick Flor,

We met the other day in front of Gouvea's office.

I am also now following you on twitter 😊

Please remind me again if and/or what graduate level courses you are teaching this Fall 2018.... it is taking far longer than it should to find a grad course that you are instructing for this Fall. I've tried all the obvious methods of searching.... figured a quick email would be best and quickest.

Perhaps we can meet and chat sometime. In fact, i am quite surprised we had not met prior to the other day. I've been Gouvea's GA/PA for several semesters, and I am in Vanessa's office rather often, directly across from your office.

Vanessa and i joke about your double-names on the door, but i don't believe you were ever in your office all the times i've been by to Vanessa's office.

Nonetheless, I am glad we crossed paths the other day.... was likely meant to happen, as are most if not all things in the Universe..... often align as they should. nice to meet you.

Thanks kindly,
~Eva

I'm not one of your grad students though...

Nick sounds nice to me, although Professor F could definitely catch on 😊

I'm I am 100 interested in studying how the media shakes viewpoints on social media and it is rather blatant as of late.... keeping me at nights even.... well that's not true because I'm always up at nights, but it as been keeping me up days (vampire style), and keeping me up longer than my typical 73-hour periods.

It's crazy what's going on out there, my new friend. #insanity 🙄📺🙄

All of this is rather timely, and of the essence... I'm telling you! Indeed.

I mean I'm write about to write my appeal letter to the Isac for waiving all my Isat fees. I'll stoll write that and may pursue but I've been wanting to talk to someone seriously about OILS for awhile now, and I may tell you about my most recent failed attempt at that under a separate cover....

Thanks !

Hi Eva,

I think most of my grad students call me either Nick or Flor — so either is fine (or ProfessorF).

Always happy to help. Yes, maybe you should do a PhD in OILS! I've been using analytics to studying how the media shapes viewpoints on social media if that's something you're interested in. But they have faculty doing all kinds of interesting research related to organizations, information, and learning.

All of the above?

Either way, I just wanted to let you know that I appreciate you, and that you're simply just being contributed to, and helped me get through another day.... as well as your prompt and timely responses.

Sometimes people do not realize the extent of the small things, and little actions that can contribute to or help others, even in ways unknown....

Let me know what type of research I could do in OILS, that involves utilizing my intensity...

and my love and passion for writing and editing to also make good money, while helping lots of people in the process....

Perhaps we were supposed to cross paths so you can convince me to apply to OILS for my PhD instead of intensely studying for LSAT followed by 3-years of law school.☺

I believe in such synchronicities ...

Rather timely if it were to be the case, lol

I never know which routes in life are best...

I typically default to intuitions and synchronicities.... as opposed to sound logic or routine thinking.... ☺

Not sure which is the best or most effective method

Law school never interested me for the money.

More so for my passion, intensity...relentlessness....

Also, the writing... I love writing... and editing....
...and for the research ☺☺

Something about mastering the English language as well, better than most...
whatever that means ☺

What to do, what to do ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Okay, will do.

Bummer about not teaching any grad classes this upcoming semester... would've been cool to take a class of yours.

I don't speak to my bro extremely frequently, but I will indeed send your regards. He's always spoke very highly of you.

He also often talks about the OILS program. Perhaps I can chat with you about OILS sometime...although at the moment I'm kinda of learning towards and set on law school... but things can always shift and change....

I've always had an interest in law school even long back since before I defaulted to business school for no reason.

I received my ungrad at anderson in 2007, surprised we didn't cross paths then either...

hmm, interesting....

Sure, I'll have to stop by sometime...

Thanks for the prompt response 🙏

Eva,

It was nice to meet you as well. Say hi to Santiago for me.

It turns out I'm not teaching any grad courses this Fall. My next grad course will probably be OILS 604 ("Learning & Exploratory Data Analytics", I have a joint appointment in the department of Organization Information Learning Sciences) in Spring of 2019. We mainly cover the use of analytics to study discussions on social media.

Yes, stop by anytime to chat!

That day I died.... basically... the old me died

And this was my 9th life...

I was in the drivers side, upside down, smashed into the ground. I've tried to write about this several times.... I always stop though... I'm still processing it all and healing from the trauma... sounds silly, since it was so long ago.... but the struggle is real, my friend.

When Pain becomes the norm.

I'm also a licensed massage therapist, in my own healing journey, bet yet still - can not find anybody to help me heal.... or feel better...

I still don't drive, til this day... I take the city buses to get around... talk about entertainment... I could make at least 11 priceless documentaries by now.. I have all the footage... I'm horrible with stuff like that...

Perhaps we could collaborate on a project of sorts... before I lose all my footage again for the 11th time and I currently have over 11,000 photos and 700 videos lol 😊🐼🐼🐼

And that's just with the most recent footage, that was not lost lol

If you follow this email chain you can see the crux and extent of what the outburst/argument was about, as well as my follow-up and apologies when I did nothing wrong...:

Like I said, it's old news.... I mean we're talking half a year ago or so.... a lot has changed since then....and I lost all respect for my friend RW in the meantime....

It was definitely an interesting experience though...,to say the least, as are mostly day-to-day experiences on #PlanetEva.... always interesting....

In fact, I want to send you cryptic messages 4chan and 8chan Q and Qanon style about all the hidden insights I know about faculty members ha! lol.... either that or a series of hilarious haikus explaining all this interesting and otherwise hidden tidbits (since I'm rather good at haikus), but Q 4chan and 8chan cryptic style will be more hilarious, intriguing and mysterious....

Where should I send these cryptic messages, here? 😊 😊 😊 😊 lol I really do crack myself up.... 🐰 🐰 🐰

Dear Dr Manuel,

I'm not sure if you have fb or not, but this is the video I was referring to today in Reilly's Office that I'd thought I had previously sent him...,since I'm always sending him Bitcoin links and articles (as well as all my Goldman Sachs alumni news briefs lol)

<https://www.facebook.com/BuzzFeedScience/videos/1116641691799055/>

I was not indicating that I personally know anything about Bitcoin (especially the ins and outs if it), I was only comparing and contrasting a Bitcoin skeptic to this 18-year old boy as well as to other close friends I know who have had some interesting and phenomenal "success stories" with utilizing Bitcoin as both a payment system and as an investment... Etc. Although I have researched it quite a bit myself, and with Reilly... because it does pique my interest... but as you mentioned it can become quite the deep and complex topic that takes one down an interesting rabbit hole...

I know now however that you were referring to and examining the bigger picture - as in what's going on globally with currencies, sovereignty, etc ...

Whereas i was just examining and analyzing both sides of the Bitcoin coin, (as Reilly and I chat about from time to time about).

I in no way meant to, or had intentions of coming off as disrespectful or insulting to Reilly, but I can see my tone and mannerisms were perceived as such, and I appreciate the fact that you cared enough about Reilly, and were passionate enough in general to respond accordingly as to how you felt, and how you perceived the situation... I truly view and perceive Reilly as one of my few close friends, and I do not want to give the impression (to him, to others, or to outside observers) that I am belittling him or insulting him in anyway because i truly appreciate the Reilly....

I'm also glad however that our misunderstanding gave us the opportunity to chat further, and get to know each other a bit better, or on a more personal level...

Let me know if you'd like to chat some more in general sometime... I would be open to that.

I'll send you an email under a separate cover about what you were telling me about your course/program that I could get graduate credits for etc.

I would like more info on that. I actually don't really need any more graduate credits, just a few more core classes, but I'd at least like more info on it and could possibly make it work

Just a few late night thoughts - ☺

Thanks again for your your time and feedback,

~Eva

This is the video I had mentioned today when I was comparing the skeptical John Ulrich btw - and I really did like John Ulrich I meant to give you feedback on that ...

but yeah I was contrasting ulrich's skepticism to this 18-year old boy's Bitcoin success:

Plus, I thought I had sent this to you, but I had actually sent it to myself... so whatever I was attempting to say was lost in assumptions perhaps... but that was the video I was referring to...

$703, that's pretty precise.... ;) lol.

yeah, check to see what you can find out if its the full-amount or not. Either way though, I'll do it.... as long as i'm able to with the allocations,etc but i think I should be... i just have not looked into the details. i can look at that RG summer contract email i had forwarded you from yesterday or summer assistantship info in general and see what i can find. i have not had the chance, as my new pal has been keeping me busy with interesting and funny messages ;) lol jk jNk also, i think medical and all of that should be covered with the RG assistantship that already went through, so i wouldn't need anything like that.

but see what you can figure out from your end about how that would need to be disbursed etc, or what would need to be done.

and if it does not work out, i won't be upset or disappointed, i appreciate you trying and looking into it. i'm not necessarily worried about the $ or amounts per se, but anything helps...

<plus, Asm will perpetually owe me for eternity for the endless hours i racked up even with just George Friberg from those Friberg RG days.. no joke..... i would take to friberg first thing in the morning and last thing and nights and then throughout the days and its a saga for days... and even after that all the hours i put in for just Rg alone, lmao. i stopped calculating them long back because the fact of the matter is that I would just realize i would be getting BAMBOOZLED BAD lol, because i put in far more effort and hours than i am likely getting paid for... plus, how does one account for time when projects consume my consciousness and sometimes will take me like 73 hours straight and i have this personality and drive where i will not and cannot stop sometimes and it can kill me physically, mentally, etc. I definitely need to practice more balance in these types of things> the above tangent is not to complain, at all... or anything akin to that... it's just to say that whatever i could help you with, i would love to help you with. If there is funds available that we could utilize for some minimum hours, that is great. Either way though, i will not be disappointed and we can always discuss and brainstorm any future projects as well...

I am flexible with whatever you can come up with as long as we can both make it work out... and 35 hours for 7 weeks is fine if that's all there's availability for....

keep me posted... thanks again for looking into it.

An unparalleled opportunity to reach a deeper level of intimacy with the one you love comes your way today, allowing you to speak your piece and really be heard. In the past, your emotional intensity how to go about making positive changes right now so you're working overtime to come up with a plan of action that will not create too much stress within your romantic connection. Overly high expectations and ambitions can make things tense, so try to work with your partner to draw on the power of teamwork to find a solution.

ARIES

You'll be able to take on any subject with your significant other today, especially an awkwardly challenging one that you may have been avoiding lately. At the heart of this is your desire to clear the air of any tension so that you may be better able to emotionally connect with the one you love. Discussing something as tricky as the power dynamics of your love relationship has never been easy and it won't be easy to talk about right now. However, your heart and mind are in sync, giving you the courage to work through the thorniest of issues.

Your words connect with your deepest feelings today, enabling you to talk about nearly anything. Normally, there are subjects you choose to avoid because you know they will stir intense

You could create a lasting bond with someone who becomes part of your inner circle as you stand up together to confront an unacceptable use of power. Flexing your cerebral muscles demonstrates your strength of character.

Like i mentioned in a previous email, i do not know if we can do a whole paper this summer, but we can chat and we can see what we can create....

Sure, let me know what you can find out... and maybe we can do something where we can just do it all in full or something akin to that. like for example, i help you for 35 hours this summer, then receive the money at the end or something....idk if that is possible or what the deal is.... nor did i think about that thought in depth... just seems more logical with such small amounts and hours as opposed to book time sheets every other week for a short period of time for small amounts.... but if that's that way it would have to be.... either way.....

these types of things are always tedious to very out and get rolling it seems..in general, but once the get going, typically the universe aligns and thing often happen the way they should...

i see where your coming from about the RG thing.... i have my own insights as well... let us have a phone convo one day or something akin to that within the next week or so, before RG gets back to clarify, discuss and brainstorm.... yeah, people are weird about stuff like that, and i would not want to do anything behind his back, but then again I've known him for awhile and often times less is more in terms of a lot of aspects and i can give you examples... let's hold off and chat and see what is best and most politically correct and if it is even all gonna go down after all...

plus, he is in brazil, and he'll text me and stuff but he gets in a different mindset when he is out there and he already reads or responds to emails and such even when he is not out there...

plus he needs rest, he was very stressed prior to leaving and i could see it and feel it in his energy and he told me he needed to check out the remedy day spa or some place when he gets back as well, and he texted me yesterday that he was getting tired and need rest....as in prior to heading to Brazil.... and he indeed was... so i do not want to bother him with such thoughts atm, and i hew assigned me some stuff to do even though i reminded him several times my contract has not started yet, and not till the 28th. I also need to get back to SW too, I do not know him, but he is likely wondering why i have not responded to that email that Rg looped me in on about me helping him or whatever...

so much to do... i really need to get on that lsac law school appeal letter too and as a top priority as i have time limit on that one and should've likely done it sooner..or already...

the friberg stories are endless, really... it's not just like one story.... plus i've told you a few already, right?

It was exactly $703 (not joking, it's really all I have left [see screenshot] sorry about that). That'd be great if we could work together and write a paper before the summer was over!

Okay I'll let you know what I hear back. Hopefully the entire amount can go to you without them taking anything out.

But could you do me a favor and check with RG to see if it's okay with him that you work with me? It's just that I know some professors get very angry if they think another professor is trying to take away their GA. Maybe let him know it's only for the summer and that you will be doing "a research project to analyze the viral spread of scientific information".

Oh, and you HAVE to tell me the Friberg story sometime.

$703, that's pretty precise.... ;) lol.

yeah, check to see what you can find out if its the full-amount or not. Either way though, I'll do it.... as long as i'm able to with the allocations,etc but i think I should be... i just have not looked into the details. i can look at that RG summer contract email i had forwarded you from yesterday or summer assistantship info in general and see what i can find. i have not had the chance, as my new pal has been keeping me busy with interesting and funny messages ;) lol jk jNk also, i think medical and all of that should be covered with the RG assistantship that already went through, so i wouldn't need anything like that.

but see what you can figure out from your end about how that would need to be disbursed etc, or what would need to be done.

and if it does not work out, i won't be upset or disappointed, i appreciate you trying and looking into it. i'm not necessarily worried about the $ or amounts per se, but anything helps...

<plus, Asm will perpetually owe me for eternity for the endless hours i racked up even with just George Friberg from those Friberg RG days.. no joke..... i would take to friberg first thing in the morning and last thing and nights and then throughout the days and its a saga for days... and even after that all the hours i put in for just Rg alone, lmao. i stopped calculating them long back because the fact of the matter is that I would just realize i would be getting BAMBOOZLED BAD lol, because i put in far more effort and hours than i am likely getting paid for... plus, how does one account for time when projects consume my consciousness and sometimes will take me like 73 hours straight and i have this personality and drive where i will not and cannot stop sometimes and it can kill me physically, mentally, etc. I definitely need to practice more balance in these types of things> the above tangent is not to complain, at all... or anything akin to that... it's just to say that whatever i could help you with, i would love to help you with. If there is funds available that we could utilize for some minimum hours, that is great. Either way though, i will not be disappointed and we can always discuss and brainstorm any future projects as well...

I am flexible with whatever you can come up with as long as we can both make it work out... and 35 hours for 7 weeks is fine if that's all there's availability for....

keep me posted... thanks again for looking into it.

Your Life Path is 30/3

You possess a great talent for creativity and self expression. Writers, poets, actors and musicians are born under the 3 Life Path. You possess a gift for gab, and savor the limelight. Your talent for the expression is so abundant that you may well have felt drawn to becoming an artist when young. Your artistic abilities can only be developed, however, through discipline and commitment to the true development of your talent. Commitment, concentration, and hard work are the only means of bringing forth your talent. Thanks to your gift, you can be the life of the party, and the center of attention. However, do not squander your talent by becoming a social butterfly. Your creativity is yours to use for the comfort and luxury you desire, but not without continuous discipline. You are optimistic and possess the resilience to overcome many obstacles. You are socially active, popular, and inspire people with your sunny "I can do it" attitude. Even you can be generous to a fault. Many people born under this path have difficulty handling money because they can be disorganized and are not serious about their responsibilities. You are emotional and vulnerable. You may withdraw into a cloud of silence, eventually emerging from your reticence with a hearty laughter that covers up your true feelings. You can become moody and That's how I'm listening to it, through audible via Amazon 🎧 cool yeah listen . We'll find other great ones too now that I had to reactivate to listen to immortal man.

And yes, dude, I was very down. I'm been down several times but never to the extent I was on may 9 and 10th prior to us connecting ! Really it was deep...I wanted to make it ALL stop once and for all

You're my new bestie too

Hi Robin (& Tammy & Darlene),

I have to spend the $703 from my first NSF grant by August, and all my current students are off working elsewhere, so I'd like to hire Eva Chavez (cc'd) just for the summer. Can we draw up a contract? This would be a PA contract, I assume.

How would the hours work since I have a fixed amount?

If PA's make ~$20, that would mean approximately 35 hrs. Would it be 10 hours for 3 weeks, plus 5 for the last week? Or 7 hours for 5 weeks? Or 5 hours for 7 weeks? A lump sum?

Let me know! Thanks,

- Nick

To sum it up without sitting up or going in depth. You may be 20-years older than me in these physical realm, but keep in mind that I may be lifetimes, ions and ages older than....

Do you know how many times I've been told I was an "Old Wise Soul" since I was a kid... countless!!!
Literally countless....

I don't get it as much anymore because people do not see the extent of it as I get older....

I can understand and appreciate your skepticism as skepticism can be a good, healthy and beneficial thing....and I do appreciate the yin-and-yang aspect of it all but what you got to understand is to not underestimate me; my knowledge, experience, intelligence, and even capabilities.....

I too was skeptical about all of it... but this was decades ago.....

When I randomly went to a psychic ages ago when I was struggling . The psychic told me I'm psychic and I don't even know it and have tapped into it.... and I had two completely different psychics at two completely different times tell me the exact same thing.... back when I was skeptical and didn't believe a damn word they were saying...

The first psychic told me I would be a healer and people would come to me because of word or mouth...mind you this was far before I went to Massage school and I was still struggling through the intensity of working for Goldman Sachs.....

When the second psychic told me that o asked her how to tap into it and she recommended Ask and it is given by Esther and Jerry hicks.....

This stuff has been in my consciousness daily for 11-years straight and has kept me alive and brought me to you...

So for you to call her cray cray or to even not even have heard of her is cray cray to me... I mean what have you been Living that much under a rock or something... i mean she's been around and known since the 80's.....

Or for me to even send you that hilarious bunny video about that audience memory asking that question and you not understanding the depth of the synchronicity of it all and not knowing that Esther was channeling Abraham etc etc...

Because to me there is nothing crazy about her, Abraham, any of it....

The law of attraction thing has been in my consciousness for so long that it's not new information for me at all. It's my life and how I live day in and day out.... it's simple and basic and there's truly really nothing to be skeptical about so that's why o don't understand why your scientific mind is trying so hard to be skeptical about my life and day to day existence.....

Or even just sending you this hasty reply... you'll take bits and pieces of it and put your own meanings to it without understanding that this is such a nutshell version of each one of those stories and that I'm in pain even responding back to you in the first place knowing that you won't understand me or my life, my struggles, my experiences, my vast insights and my many many many many lifetimes of Information that I'm delivering to you as well for both of our benefit...

I'm not naive, I'm not gullible, I'm gifted, my intelligence and skills run deep, and I'm one of the biggest skeptics you'll ever meet (even throughout my endless kindness and positivity) so that's why that message and the one about you telling me you'll get me drinking again frustrate me beyond understanding especially when your mind cannot process how much time and pain and thoughtful do consideration I took in sending you all those details and messages in the first place!

This is just a train of thoughts that I will not reread or edit but just don't take any of my thoughts or words out of context and Old don't trying filling any of it in with your own assumptions of what my words in this message may mean because it's a hasty response....

Okay here's how I see it, and I'm probably going to ramble too, but there are too many things that triangulate and connect for it to be luck or coincidence. The 3's I've been seeing throughout the years, the 3's I've been seeing ever since I met you, and that 3:33 in that old seminar you went to, and then the hummingbirds and flowers and the songs, it's like the universe is saying to me "wake up dummy" this isn't coincidence.

And then everything you have me listen to, makes me think: "Oh yeah, that actually sounds right"

It's like we've been drawn together finally, after ages of looking for each other. And you've been doing all these things in the past and collecting information for me and to prove to me this connection is real.

And finally, I didn't tell you this, but you're constantly on my mind. Like I'm supposed to do something important with you, and this is my last chance.

Anyway, that probably doesn't make sense but it's what's on my mind.

That's also why I'm excited for you to listen to immortal man with me because that was recommended to me the day I met you I'll have to check the timings on how far about but I'm pretty sure you and I met at around 11:11 ish....

All of that must be part of the synchronicity ...

And who knows, the way my life works... immortal man may not have even been meant for me, but meant for you...

I was just the messenger perhaps... definitely wouldn't be the first time...

But don't worry I'll relisten to it with you, separately and simultaneously , especially since you've been distracting me so much since my friend sent it to me!

In a good way! 😊

Point being though 📱

There's stuff with my name all over the place lately though lol 'Eva puppets' lol you said that!

And she's not referring to her curling iron photo about IG she's referring to she got this new procreate app that she wants to learn (and has been talking about it for awhile) and she tried it for the first time and made that 'Raina' image...so she was just telling me she was proud of it...

Funny that her curling iron says 'eva' in the middle though, of had that happen a ton lately lol #PlanetEva

Also I think it's cute that she's been wanting to learn that app for awhile... I removed she told me she had a list of over 100 things she wanted to make. I was like "Over 100 things??!!!" Haha

Yes, I can imagine it....

Can you though? that's the question

Plus, when are we going to get 73 hours?

I have some deep-seated theories on how to eventually help and fix my neck and back....

But they are layered, intricate, detailed, and intimate.....

It'll take lots of time though, since it took 33 years for me to get this way and it's a deep-seeded mess

Lots of lovemaking.

And your strong, caring, supportive and intuitive hands emanating love, healing faith and home all over my body, but especially in certain spots on my neck, back, and sides....

.....

Until we can eventually released those deep dark and ugly monsters of pain that live within me and my throbbing and pained body that debilitated me....

....

That's just a nutshell version of my theory though.....

It may need some tweaking and testing though....

It's mostly just my theory....

But you're wrong, it was you who started opening up to me.... you called me 'babe' and then you followed that immediately up with "That horoscope makes me want to make sweet love to you right now. But get your rest!"

And both of those adjective were prior to me even checking my own horoscope and both of those aspects and commentary really did something to me and has me feeling certain ways that I've already described to you in somewhat of vivid details....

So, it was YOU who started opening up to ME, and making me feel certain ways that I could therefore not suppress after you brought them out in me by those two aspects and commentary....

So, you cast the love spell, YOU opened up, and you got me feeling things and ways that I have not felt in awhile....

And you have my yearning to eventually test my theories, over time.....

YOU did all of that to ME....

I don't think it was the other way around, but perhaps I'm mistaken

I know. It's like we were meant to meet. And In a strange way your encounter and problems with WR are what brought us together — because if you were still his GA and happy, we never would have met probably.

Anyway, don't be angry or sad. I see you as a genius with a generous and a kind soul who has a lot to offer the world.

And I still think we were meant to work together and produce great things.

When you started opening up, like the horoscope said, is when I started getting these intense feelings.

I'm not even sure what you've done to me or why I cannot think straight or get anything done myself.....

I used to be so angrily productive with all my writings and unnecessary writing samples and letters. And had I met you a week prior who knows I may not have ever written the Fagan feedback nor that long-winded technology email....etc so on and so forth....

And I still have like 2-3 important things I need to write with deadlines that you completely took off my radar.....

You helped take my mind off a lot of things that were frustrating me deeply and I have not really thought about or heckled WR once since I met you, about all my annoyances and anger towards him, and RG secretly probably wonders what happened but I used to complain about it a lot.....

WR, even though all he wanted was for me to quote heckling him and just give him peace and to never contact him again, probably wonders what the H happened to me and if I fell off the planet or something...

You really helped shift my focus....

I was in an angry, sad, frustrating and isolated loop for awhile there.... it was not good and you helped me out....

And all those things I was sooo angry about, slowly faded to the background instead of taking front and center stage to my thoughts and feelings.... of my existence...

Doesn't necessarily mean all the gushing and headaches and everything else I described to you on vivid detail would happen... in person... especially not at first... and not all at once either...

But something that never finishes that I can reactivate Over and over and over and over again is not necessarily a climax is it?

Maybe it is but it's unrelated to the source of all waterfalls (me).

Or maybe i do 'climax' and I just have the magically ability to do it over and over and over and over and over again, on demand, at my will or based upon other things and circumstances etc...

I'm not average I'm not typical abs my abilities are indeed rare... I also wasn't kidding about the research, the science, the 'interviews' everything I've cut and pasted you a million times that you were not understanding.....

I've never understand people and what they think is ecstasy or passion...,

Because mine runs deep and at completely different levels than most humans....

I'm telling you we're not talking 33-years here. We're taking lifetimes!!! And the 73-hours thing is a joke babe, because I am a human and I get tired after going 73-hours without sleep.. that's kinda my self-proclaimed breaking point if non-sleeping even though I do go longer than 73-hours without sleep..

The gushing and magic is me. It's Eva. It's perpetual. It's omnipresent... has nothing to do with 73 hours...

I can gush for infinity or at least for days... not flowing perpetually, of course... but still non-stop in the sense of never-ending....

But I gotta rest at some point, dork!

Yes, I can imagine it....

Can you though? that's the question

Plus, when are we going to get 73 hours?

.....

I have some deep-seated theories on how to eventually help and fix my neck and back....

But they are layered, intricate, detailed, and intimate.....

It'll take lots of time though, since it took 33 years for me to get this way and it's a deep-seeded mess

....

Lots of lovemaking.

....

And your strong, caring, supportive and intuitive hands emanating love, healing faith and home all over my body, but especially in certain spots on my neck, back, and sides....

.....

Until we can eventually released those deep dark and ugly monsters of pain that live within me and my throbbing and pained body that debilitated me....

....

That's just a nutshell version of my theory though.....

It may need some tweaking and testing though....

....

It's mostly just my theory....

Yet to be proven....

In anyway.....

But....

....

I've tried everything else....., 😞

This white guy just found out that I'm not white and I'm Hispanic and proceeded to call me an ugly piece of trash.

I responded "thank you" because let's be honest. 🙄🙄

And then that girl says stuff like: “If you’re gonna try and play games with a girl over social media don’t do it to the girl who literally got her degree to get a job in social media and knows the ins and outs of all social media platforms

S/o to @ProfBenavidez for helping us swerve guys”

A couple tweets apart from: “Let your girl know where is hiring ”

Lol it’s like “ok sis, sorry bout you having to curb all them guys with your ‘drop-dead gorgeous’ painted on makeup facadery (of that’s what ppl are calling it nowadays).... but how about let’s do some maturing first.” Haha. Some people’s children

Lmao this are totally WR’s types of undergrads that he’d follow around like a puppy dog.... no joke, and giggle at every pathetic and ridiculous thing they or ‘she’. I can do an impression of him. I found it highly disgusting and annoying, didn’t go to over half of his classes and 16-pages of the 26-page instructor evaluation (that o never submitted) is likely about that in and of itself.... his pathetic immaturity and ‘pretty’ undergraduate coeds lol - if that’s what one wants to call them....

Anyways he joined the JB, JC, RD club with all the rest of those pathetic and disgusting fools that have to flirt with undergraduates and hand out A+’s to them in order to make them feel good about themselves and their lives complete and in attempts to get unassuming students to like them and buy them expensive damn shoes....

Trust me I can write a dossier on this topic alone..... haha just didn’t think I would be including your cool people in my research lol

...or how Dk can respond to one of WR’s duck lipped makeup caked dream girls about something utterly stupid and unimportant tweets through twitter, but he cannot respond to my important emails, just like WR or the rest of those fools!!!

You might as well just add a bunch of 'duck lip' photos as your cover photo on TWTR, and add WR to 'the cool ppl' list too, while you're at it....

The two of you can start a giddy undergraduate schoolgirl club, become make-up affiliates, and have a photo booth for duck lip photos on site! 😊

I can picture it now! #soclearly 🙄🙄🙄

And JB will likely want in on it too! 😊

Ok, there's my writing about JB, we can check it off the checklist now, along with the previous commentary I've made about him here and there 😊😊

....

No more "stocking" of WRNVF twitters, that's for sure! 🙄🙄🙄😐😐😐😐

...

And then that way I won't have to stumble across any JB commentaries along the way either thank goodness, win-win for everybody....

In fact, no more twitter for me!

The internet is now officially broken,....

But it was fun while it lasted, (the TWTR experience), and I'll always be forever grateful for your 'Yes!' on twitter....
<and that will not change>

....

But wait... does the Cool Club losing its novelty and value also diminish the value of the 'Yes!' ???

Hmmm. I'll ponder upon that one for awhile

Hey, and while you guys are at it - why don't you get Gillespie in on the mix too, god forbid he gets left out on the undergraduate makeup affiliate duck face extravaganza!

Pffftt..

#ASM #COOLPEOPLECLUBS

....

Also, this girl always popping up all over the place lmao and was ALWAYS on WR 'COOL PEEPS' 'duck face' lists....

You should seek her out, follow her on twitter, and her to the cool ppl... you and WR can share lists:

Cool ppl lists that is lol, of course! 😊

🤢😐😄. #barf #theNewCoolPPL

Don't forget to recruit JC the clown as well, I'm sure he would definitely come out of the woodworks for this project!

Ok, there's my writing about JC as well ✓

Also, this goes along with those other messages I just sent and not necessarily on this thread.... but you're also totally underestimating the effects of the cycles on you somehow ending up in a JC.files email thread, me calling you WR etc, you saying I'm difficult to communicate with and all the other things that frustrated you, that you felt were extremely bizarre, or did not understand....

And the even funnier part is that I spent several hours and hundreds of emails explaining that all to you and then you you just told me I was difficult to communicate with and overlooked everything I'd spent days and hours typing you....

sometimes intense pain, sleep deprivation, and frustrations does not make logical sense... and then add an intensity that over powers ALL of that....

...

AND that's actually when I need friendship the most <catch-22> ?

I'm actually happy all those WR, JB, JC issues and stories etc have come up because they would've all came up eventually as well as my deep-seated animosity towards certain actions and behaviors demonstrated by 'instructors' throughout the years....

And aside from me calling you An WR because you hurt my feelings, and you ending up in a JC.file thread... I truly do not put you in the category as those guys, at all. Plus, I've never had a class with you, I'm not your student and I did not have to sit through an entire 16-weeks watching you annoyingly and disgusting flirt with ridiculous young college coeds.... if that were the case, it would be a different story.. but you're also my friend... and none of those other guys were ever my friends in the least, (except for when WR told me and convinced me that he was my friend)

....

I expect and hope that we can move on from this "extremely bizarre week" of attempting to understand one another, lol.,

Subject: Fahrenheit 451 - Overall thoughts as hopefully you already read in my other cycles message, that i am not too okay to be typing right now... but just really quick i wanted to give you a few of my insights into Fahrenheit 451, and its totally tripping me out.

Clarisse McClellan = Me
Guy Montag = You

Except that I am not 17-years-old, you are not 31-years old, and you are not a fireman... Yet, in our past lives though B, this is NO DOUBT us....

...I wonder if we make love in the book, I currently do not recall ... ;)

Yet, the book is bringing back tons of memories just in reading the first several pages...

and, i also used to have a bit of a 'thing' for firemen, at Clarisse's age, lol, and at the age of me reading the book... anyways, i legitimately had not opened or read this book since i was 16-years old or so.. and it's falling apart, and has my high school stamped on it because i stole it from the school (i mean i did not steal it per se because we had to pay for whatever books we did not turned in), but i did not turn it now, and now 17-years later, i know why... and it's already tripping me out just reading it, and the memories it is bringing back... past life memories...and especially since you are the reason i took it out of my shelf in the first place! so i could take that 1984/Fahrenheit 451 book pic that i sent you on twitter, when we'd first met... ;)

...so, we may have to do a Clarisse/Montag ERC/NVF Synopsis separately from our propaganda synopsis', since these newfound memories and insights are so detailed and shocking to me ;)

However, in terms of the Propaganda synopsis' and us working on the project, and relating it to present day propaganda etc. it appears as though there are three parts to the book:

Part One: The Hearth and the Salamander (1)

Part Two: The Sieve and the Sand (69)

Part Three: Burning Bright (111)

Afterword: (167)

Coda: (175)

We should likely just finish Fahrenheit 451 first (each part and the brief summary/discussion), and then move on to 1984, right..once done?

What are your thoughts?

When do you want the deadline for out Part One: Propaganda Synopsis as well as the 'Clarisse/Montag ERC/NVF synopsis' to be?

Should we add this as it's own tab in the NVFERC Important Task List, or do you think we should start a new worksheet altogether for this one? hmm. likely the latter? thoughts?

Anyways B, i truly must rest my head (whether i sleep or not)...

really struggling over here... looking forward to hearing back from you with lots of lovely and thoughtful message responses, either before, after, or during your writing breaks ;P and i will let you focus ;)

Yes, it is very interesting that the met on the first day of a cycle. I thought that was the case, but i went back to confirm prior to sending you that email...Interesting indeed.

In response to your message of:

Yes, it's definitely physical pain, but also intensely emotional...as i wrote previously, and you likely read thereafter.

I also included that content from the '19-days' email that i'd detailed out for you specifically what would be happening in the next 9-10 days, and also what was happening at that moment in time ,19-days into the cycle... I've included it <attached> for our reference and attempts to map out and remember for next or future times, and especially since i had just told you All of this 8-days or so ago... and you seemed to forget it all... and when you asked how you could help, or what you could do, i mentioned just to be there for me.... especially during those times etc...

and when my feelings were hurt and i was really struggling was when you told me i was difficult to communicate with, which is why i retorted back with the WR thing, and the Jc thing was actually a completely unrelated topic to the WR thing...

Anyways, I digress...

the point of this email is to attempt to explain to you what is currently going on with me 27-days wish into the cycle.... and how in credibly horrible it feels.... to help us remember and for reference....

27-Days-in:

my stomach literally aches.... deeply. not like a regular stomach ache, but like a deep-seated, disgusting horrible ache... like my body knows its preparing to feeling like my entire life force, energy, and soul even is being drained from body, completely...

I can hardly even sit here to type you this... my lower bathe aches deeply and is completely uncomfortable. I cannot sit still, and i cannot sit comfortable, EVER! but especially now... my neck, back and shoulders also ache too...bad... like a deep exhausted and drained type of achy.... like growing pains as a kid, but nobody is growing anymore, lol not lol. My stomach is literally gurgling, awaiting the life force to be drained out of it... no joke, it hurts.. already.... both my left and ride sides are beginning to contract...and not only are my abs tightening up along with the curling on either sides of my stomach, but it feels as if all of my entire insides and inner being our being prepared to be squeezed out of me.... I'm permanently making this frown face as I type this too... just because it's so uncomfortable, and this is mainly just the calm before the storm...

As i mentioned in a previous email to you....all of my attachments on my body ache, deeply... like for example, especially where my shoulders connect to my arms etc... like i have mentioned several times already - i have extremely horrible posture.... but when your lower back is throbbing more than your smashed toes, your insides are gurgling in pain, and your hunched over frowning literally trying to push through each word without crying, or my entire insides contracting fiercely, where i am 100% doubled-over in pain...then posture becomes at it's worst, making everything that much more painful and awkward....

within the next 24-48 hours ish is when i will hardly be able to stand up, because the pain will be squeezing so tightly inside me that i legitimately will be unable to stand up straight, and as i mentioned in that previous message:

"I will become debilitated, there will be times the pain in my sides will be so bad I literally will not be able to stand up straight, and whether I'm in the shower or at school or in the bathroom I will be like doubled over in pain and literally cannot stand up straight because it's so intense... people will not understand the discomfort or pain or anything else that comes along with it... .or, what I'm feeling or going through...

My emotions reach the tip of the scale and the iceberg. I can feel everybody's feelings and emotions so intensely... I carry the weight of the world on my shoulders, back and neck..... and have empathy and sorrow even for ppl who seemingly have it all (or who nobody needs to be feeling sorrow for); I see through everything and I feel how people truly feel and think as I carry the weight and burden of everybody's troubles, worries, sorrows and insecurities.... simple things will make me happy or sad or intensely emotional...

It will feel like all life has been sucked out of my body, like I cannot go on any longer, like I do not want to function or live... everything aches, everything is frustrating and everything seems excruciating difficult and frustrating... conspiracy theory things start to happen... certain types of hormones and feelings are like radiating off me body and essence and ppl could feel the intensity of my energy from miles away but they do not know why...."

What i described to you above is exactly what is happening to me right now and within the next 24-48 hours ish. I am becoming completely debilitated, and there will be times the pain in my sides will literally be so intense that i will no joke not be able to stand up straight. and as i mentioned before, whether in the shower, or at school in the classroom, or bathroom, i will be hunched over and doubled-over in pain, and people will truly not understand why.... <even if i explained it in vivid detail as i have done over and over and over again for you> things is all different from the regular, daily pain and trauma from my car accident... this is a different, diisgustly deep and intense cyclical other world planet Eva reals types of intensity and pain...

Literally my insides feel squeezed right now, and i am writhing in pain trying to message this, no joke...

i cannot walk down the stairs typically at this time because as i mentioned in the previous message, my breasts; chest, pectoralis muscles etc. are completely sensitive, and even walking down the stairs hurts... but right now that is not an issue since i am in too much pain still from the throbbing toe...

Ugggg B.... I'm incredibly in pain and uncomfortable... it's a deep-seated, disgusting and indescribable pain that i would not really wish on anybody...it aches, it's exhausting... it's deep, painful...and sad.....

Tomorrow will be super rough for me, my dear B.....and this is all still prior to the cycle beginning again... which i will let you know when that occurs (probably tmi) so you will know you have know the existence of and been my friend in #PlanetEva for a full-cycle in all of it's pain and intensity throughout ... and you're right.... it is also approaching a month of when we met! At least in this lifetime.....

and i still feel like we met much longer ago, but 'past lives couldn't ever hold us down,' B i'm here for you now B... and i also need you now, and your messages too... pls. to cuddle up to...

Okay, well that is kind of interesting that we met on the first day of a cycle. So that means I get to see you through a full cycle.

Now you mentioned the last 5-7 days are the worst parts of the cycle. Is it just pain, or is it emotional as well. I haven't finished reading all the details of the cycle messages that you sent me, but I'm doing it now.

You said I could help map out your cycles, but then you had another idea. What was this idea?

Pls just send me a few of your nice messages to wake up to ... like send them during the witching hour sometime during 8:11-11:11 am ish or something so that when I look for them I'm not sad

Honestly this will all likely change too, with the cycles..., me being needy for your messages, lol. I'm typically not this needy,... 😊

But for now though; I'm vulnerable, I'm in pain, I'm sad, down, and depressed, with very low self-confidence....

receiving your messages somehow make me feel better 😊

I can imagine this so clearly 😊

“Just imagine me on top of you, our bare skin sliding over each other, my mind telling me to stop before I explode, but my body thrusting deeper in you... while I whisper "no Eva we have to stop... mmm Eva, we have to ... mmm Eva"

Only thing is... I do not think you can imagine how sopping wet we will both be, slipping and sliding all over each other with Eva's magical slip and slide natural fountain juices all over the place ...

And yes, thank you for the delicious vibes... you have no idea how you've got me feeling in my exhaustion even....

"Yes, but of course.....

Because it's meant to be...."

....

Haha, I'm tell you B, comments like that are so far from an sort of regular type of Eva comments, your mind would be blown....

I'm telling you, any of my former best friends or anybody I ever dated would straight call out BLASPHEMY.... it's just not something I'd typically do or say....

I mean I know for a fact I've changed, in countless ways, in the past 19-months or so.... I used to be so outgoing and super sociable... the life of the party, literally... I would make everybody laugh and feel comfortable, and had the most interesting and diverse group of friends of anybody, ever..... so many stories about the former Eva....

Now though, I'm not very sociable at all, I'm insecure, I literally cannot stand being at parties or around ppl. Btw I did have to end up making the graduation party on Friday and it was the epitome of how much I've changed... I cannot even hold a conversation with anybody anymore without being awkward..... but hey, all good. There's also some good and positive aspects of this new Eva.... and of course, everybody misses that Old Eva, as do I.... but really, it was time to move on....

But anyways I digress....

Just now when I tell you stuff like:

“Yes, but of course.....

Because it’s meant to be....”

In response to you saying we should partake in delicious, intense and passionate love-making, without protection...

Well, that’s not exactly what you said, what you said was “... and we're doing it with no protection because it feels so good...”

Anyways, just know that my responses to you are uniquely special and rare, and in fact I cannot recall EVER responding to ANYBODY in that manner, ever! And that’s including ALL my past lives !

It’s just not something I’d typically do or say....

So, it feels very intriguing and interesting,. To say such things, and respond to you in such ways and manners 😊😊😊 you diving into the nice cool, refreshing fountain....

i was thinking, the gushing fountain from the video is likely a more realistic metaphor than the waterfall.... because the fountain is more controlled, can likely be turned on or off, is always there, and is not constantly flowing non-stop throughout the seasons....

sometime the waterfall could be accurate, but that's likely a whole different story.... ;)

Subject: Re: Running Back to You

You totally overlooked this song BABE! and you need to give it a second-chance....

First off, the version i heard and sent you, wasn't really too techno or techno sounding.....
Also, it has everything you like actually, nice dreamy lyrics, acoustic, etc. so on and so forth ...

plus, it talks about Old lovers, past lives, walking outside to kiss the moon, and wishing i kissed you!
it has everything babe, slow dancing and all (just as you like) ;)

If we dance real slow until the music fades
Will we do the same?

I could not find a good version of the one i listened to and had sent you... but here is an acoustic version with "Nick" the For the Foxes singer, and Allison Weis, so you could see what you were overlooking with your techno bias... i mean we could've been slow-dancing to it already if you weren't anti the song ;)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=I2px3d7Wlh8> also, I know you hate wasting electricity very much so...but from the sounds of all these songs, you're gonna have to keep a light on for me babe ;) AND i have an entire "Running back to YOU" station entirely on accident from one day when i was trying to like this song, lol, accidentally created a Running back to YOU station, so it must somehow be important.....

Running Back to YOU

Hey, Old Lover, when you fall asleep
There's a piece of YOU in every song I sing
Where your childhood runs wild and free
Without me

Held your love in a silver spoon
Walked outside just to kiss the moon
Looking back I wish I kissed you
Kissed YOU

To keep the light on, honey, is the least that I can do
If I keep running back to you
Your heart is a slow train coming, I'm afraid to make my move
If I keep running back to you

...

Hey, Old Lover, it's a lonely day
There's a record on and the song I made
If we dance real slow until the music fades
Will we do the same?

Held your heart till the bitter end
You held my hand like I was your best friend
In another life we will meet again
Again

To keep the light on, honey, is the least that I can do
If I keep running back to you

Your heart is a slow train coming, I'm afraid to make my move
If I keep running back to you
If I keep running back to you
You, you, you

To keep the light on, honey, is the least that I can do
If I keep running back to you

Your heart is a slow train coming, I'm afraid to make my move
If I keep running back to you
If I keep running back to you
YOU

ps. B - will you hold my heart until the bitter end, and will YOU hold my hand like I was your best friend?

also, do you want to sing and play this sometime together... even though it's too techno sounding
;)

Haha, I'm tell you B, comments like that are so far from an sort of regular type of Eva comments, your mind would be blown....

I'm telling you, any of my former best friends or anybody I ever dated would straight call out BLASPHEMY.... it's just not something I'd typically do or say....

I mean I know for a fact I've changed, in countless ways, in the past 19-months or so.... I used to be so outgoing and super sociable... the life of the party, literally... I would make everybody laugh and feel comfortable, and had the most interesting and diverse group of friends of anybody, ever..... so many stories about the former Eva....

Now though, I'm not very sociable at all, I'm insecure, I literally cannot stand being at parties or around ppl. Btw I did have to end up making the graduation party on Friday and it was the epitome of how much I've changed... I cannot even hold a conversation with anybody anymore without being awkward..... but hey, all good. There's also some good and positive aspects of this new Eva.... and of course, everybody misses that Old Eva, as do I.... but really, it was time to move on....

But anyways I digress....

Just now when I tell you stuff like:

"Yes, but of course.....

Because it's meant to be...."

In response to you saying we should partake in delicious, intense and passionate love-making, without protection...

Well, that's not exactly what you said, what you said was "... and we're doing it with no protection because it feels so good..."

Anyways, just know that my responses to you are uniquely special and rare, and in fact I cannot recall EVER responding to ANYBODY in that manner, ever! And that's including ALL my past lives !

It's just not something I'd typically do or say....

So, it feels very intriguing and interesting.. To say such things, and respond to you in such ways and manners 😊😁😄

Probably too much actually...

I want to tell you all my thoughts about it all but I cannot!!!

We definitely need to co-author a paper though...

Sacco told me last night to get the F out of there and start my publishing and editing company once I starting telling him how giddy editing makes me. He's like "are you kidding me, your so good at everything you do! Get the hell out of there and go make real money doing everything your excellent at!" He told me people need editors all the damn time and I know it because I edit every damn textbook and the all suck!! Even after 18 editions of whatever ...,

I had to cut him off though when he had me as the best "script supervisor" winning academy award because he's friends with the ground day movie "script supervisor"

I had to cut him off... I'm like "dude... I'm lucky if I make it through each day... now go Inside your house because I can hear those damn crickets chirping and they remind me of the crickets I hear when I email all of Anderson's damn faculty or when I go on a tweet storm roasting all of them."

Lmao and he still continued on with his story after that..,

Hey, I really love the flower idea... in so many ways and in so many layers... and it actually kinda terms me on a bit researching flowers reproducing lol

But yeah I do have a lot to say on the topic and to respond but I start feeling like all intense and dizzy ...

I wish I would've described to you the intensity of past 24-48 hours so you can know what type of state I'm under and condition I'm in...

It's like your getting all sorts of info and vibes off me now that you wouldn't otherwise get off me...

Like a drunk rambling all sorts of nonsensical truths or something ...

And this intense energy emitting off my body these past few days... Indescribable

And the life and energy being entirely sucked out of my body..., even as we speak...

It's like psychedelics while sober or something... I cannot believe this...

But yeah, people keep talking about viral messages, but I think that's the wrong way of looking at it.

Understanding how flowers reproduce (I know that sounds funny, but I'm serious) will provide a better metaphor for understanding how to spread information, than how viruses spread.

Then we can co-author a paper: A biologically-inspired method for spreading information (based on our study of flowers)

I've already started mapping the process out, but I have a long ways to go (this is part of what I do in the morning). I'll diagram the seed spreading process today:

Sorry, rambling.

I will, if I'm behind my computer and not doing home projects.

Okay, so I'm thinking for our summer research project (and this has to do with spreading information) that nature has already figured out how to do it.

0. You have an animal or a plant

1. Genes contain the blueprint (information) for recreating that animal/plant, packaged in chromosomes in cells.

2. Cells split, creating eggs and sperm, with half the chromosomes

3. Those combine with sperm and eggs from other animals/plants

4. goto step 0

So you can think of it as the genes creating animals/plants to spread themselves

Therefore we should research and document the process by which plants (flowers) reproduce. Because that is how the information reproduces itself. It's nature's solution to spreading information virally and it's totally efficient.

And flowers have the most diverse mechanisms for fertilization, birds, bees, wind -- all those you can think of as different (insect/environment) "social" media for combining an egg and a sperm to get a seed. And then the transport mechanism for the seeds themselves (bird poop, wind) is also fascinating.

Thus, by mapping the biological process of flower fertilization and seed spreading, we are mapping nature's way of spreading information "virally"

In other words, a flower is a better metaphor for spreading information than the virus metaphor we use today.

Isn't that fascinating?

Subject: Re: Disaster of a day

Okay, just a general comment, and I haven't thought too deeply about any of this, I'm just reacting, so this is my first impressions:

0. You're pretty amazing, and you have an interesting view of life. And I'm happy to have you as a friend.

Thank you. I think you're pretty awesome as well and I truly appreciate you and your friendship. Your sense of humor, your intelligence... lots of things...

1. What makes me different is I respond. I'm not like the other people around you who totally ignore you. And I respond because I'm your friend. Unlike Reilly and John Benavidez, I actually have a reputation for NOT responding to students. So, the fact that I respond to you means I think you're special. Actually, Reilly did used to respond to me, a lot as well, and he was my 'friend,' until his wife told him "It's either me or THAT," of which I will address in your point #2 below (but bear in mind, I have already addressed this precise topic in lots of detail so you must've either 1) over looked it, 2) skimmed it or 3) forgot or 4) rudely mentioning it again despite none of 1-3.

And, if anybody has a reputation of not responding it's me and my 170 unread texts and friends, even just this morning, sending me messages like "OK I take it you are not okay then and not to disturb you any longer." Etc. so on and so forth, and 152,000+ unread emails....

I really am flattered by the fact that you think I am "special,"

But, then again, I also resort back to your 'cool people' list and I looked at your cousin's page you were INDEED quite extremely responsive to that particular 'student' for QUITE an extensive period of time, 'acknowledging' just about every single one of her tweets and literally 'responding' to the most ridiculous tweets and I had ever read in quite a long time. Like literally for months you would respond to every single one of her tweets and they were all 100% braindead, childish, garbage school girl things (that not even her school girl friends would like, only you). I would not believe you would even 'acknowledge' if someone paid you to, unless for some reasons that 'cool girl' student was also "special" to you, so as I mentioned before, it kind of takes/took away from the "special" aspect and from the you having a "reputation for NOT responding to students" commentary. If you know what I mean, and as I have already mentioned previously.

Also, you never told me what the whole big sob story is... did 'Aaron Carter' not ask her out, or did her previously bf break up with her because she valued make-up more than life and personalities, or was it when he realized all that gunk washed off at nights? Lol <yet serious question too>

2. Aside, after thinking about it some more, I don't think Reilly's wife found out anything. I think that's a story he made up because he didn't want to talk to you anymore, because you message a lot and demand a response, and he got tired of responding.

Not sure if you remember but you already told me this, and I already responded, on a few occasions, in a few different manners (and you never acknowledged my responses). Too exhausted to search for my past detailed response to you about it, but essentially, I told you that you are wrong, and I 100% believe Reilly and believe him that his wife told him that, and not only do I believe she told him that, but I also believe she read and monitored all of his emails, especially his emails to and from me.... And as I have already mentioned to you before (of which you likely skimmed, did not pay attention to, or you forgot) - Reilly and my messages were NOTHING like YOURS and MINE! 100% absolutely not! So, as I've also mentioned, his wife could have read every single word of every single email and it only would have confused her even more.... Plus, their issues have absolutely nothing to do with me, and Reilly and I had no messages whatsoever of flirting or of cuddling (or anything EVER remotely along those lines) Or anything that could have possibly have been considered as "crossing the lines" or anything of the sort...and as I have also already mentioned, was only through UNM webmail when I was his GA AND when I was his student.

SO, YOUR and MY communications and 'friendship' is 100% different and I find it rude of you to tell me, (especially for the second or third time) "I think that's a story he made up because he didn't want to talk to you anymore, because you message a lot and demand a response, and he got tired of responding." 100% rude of you!!!

Also, Reilly is an extremely lonely and insecure dude (as I've mentioned 100 times) he also truly valued me and my friendship, and if his and his wife's relationship had not been so messed up (nothing to do with me) and him and her both so insecure, then she would not have read all of his messages and said "it is either me or THAT" about someone that was not even interested in her husband, especially sexually or romantically.

AND THEN, to top it off, for you to tell me that is likely what YOUR wife would say if she found OUR messages... do you NOT see the complete irony in all of this, and what you are trying to say, as well as your assumptions and accusations?? Hmm, if not, not sure what to say about all that... but the irony runs DEEP, indeed!

3. Yes, I did tell you to reach out, and I do respond. I just can't respond immediately. But as a friend, I respond. So, it's very unfair that you put me in the same category as the Dimitri's and Raj's and Reilly's and other faculty that don't respond at all. Very unfair. HODL UP HOMIE back up a bit , REWIND and why don't you just CASH ME OUTSIDE HOW BOUT DAT!! Where in the H did I EVER compare you to or put you in the same category as Dimitri, or Raj?!?! WTF DUDE for reals!!! Now you're crossing a few lines! I NEVER ONCE put you in that category or insinuated that... so the ONLY thing VERY UNFAIR that I sense here is you making that accusation itself!!!! 100% unfair!!! What I instead politely and precisely asked you was: "Also, it makes me curious as to how our friendship is even different than mine and WR's (other than that it's more complex and I feel VERY different towards you)and I'm not comparing you to him btw, I'm legitimately wondering and asking...."

And I KNEW you were going to get ALL HURT simply because I forgot the word *was but the word *WAS should have been in there (see below):

"Also, it makes me curious as to how our friendship is even different than mine and WR's WAS(other than that it's more complex and I feel VERY different towards you)and I'm not comparing you to him btw, I'm legitimately wondering and asking...."

And not to mention, you did NOT respond to me other than will your rude assumptions that I had already responded to in the past, you telling me that I message A LOT and 'demand' responses, and all of this other not very nice stuff that a friend would not do... and I already clarified to you COUNTLESS times where my genuine comment came from 1) Reilly white was my friend 2) he did respond and was responsive 3) his wife is insecure and told him he could not message me 4) he, similarly to perhaps you and others, do as their wives say whether they want to or not, or whether they are happy or not 5) I told you mine and your relationship is VERY different, 6) I blatantly (and vulnerably) expressed my feelings about you and towards you (aside from friendship feelings, which you ignored, overlooked and did not comment on), 7) I told you I was not comparing you to him (and that I was legitimately wondering and asking) , and you still retorted back with rude and hurtful comments 8) and then you randomly through in there that I was putting you into categories as Dmitri and raj and that I am being 'very unfair' but in reality you are not seeing how unfair and unthoughtful your responses and commentary are...

4. Due to my circumstances I can't respond immediately. It's not just that I'm married, I have research and teaching prep to do. You message a lot, throughout the day. My world, as a faculty member, revolves around my research and teaching first. That's not selfish, because in doing that I help other people. But those activities require long and solid blocks of time, interruptions are costly. So, what are your 'circumstances' and why do you keep saying that? And no, that is ABSOLUTELY Not what told me. In fact, you told me the opposite, you told me that if you do not respond immediately through message to give you a call and you made me promise that I would! So, do not even know why you are changing things up now and telling me the opposite. And as I have told you before I NEVER once called Reilly White nor did I communicate with him at all the way I do with you, so yeah, completely different in that regards.

Also, it's 100% obvious to me that you do not see how much I can help you with your 'activities' as a 'faculty member' and with your research and all the other stuff that you would like assistance with and to focus on. I guess I need to hunch over in pain and write you a layered 11-page document about how helpful I can be to you in those areas and to your research, writing, editing, etc. for you to understand how sometimes when the universe brings something right in front of your face and you are too busy clouded by your own thoughts and focus that you tell me “those activities require long and solid blocks of time, interruptions are costly” is incredibly condescending and rude, especially if you truly knew how much your “interruptions” with you could inevitably help you with those exact things you are working on and wanting to focus on, but that’s fine – I WILL KEEP MY COSTLY INTERRUPTIONS TO A MINIMUM!!!! Especially from here on out, and ESPECIALLY if that is what you are wanting and asking of me!!!

5. Does that mean I don't care? If I didn't, I wouldn't respond. But I do because I'm your friend. I appreciate so much that you care, and that you respond, as well as your friendship. I do not know how many times I need to tell you that or repeat it for you to believe me or accept my words as honest truth. I have never taken you for granted.

That's all. Maybe we can't be super close friends like it started to be in the beginning, and maybe yes it was because it was a new experience for both of us (and that numerology you showed me was pretty convincing about things not being a coincidence). But now that I'm beginning to understand the pain you're in and the end-of-cycles, maybe that's not the kind of friend you need. Fine NICK, sounds wonderful – now that you are ‘understand the pain I’m in and the end-of-cycles,’ then you do not think we can be ‘super close friends’ anymore!! And dude, this is with you only knowing me for 30-days!!! Wow, some friendship, thanks!!! And no, you really aren’t beginning to understand things that well, you only met me 30-days ago!!!! And yeah, I guess that is NOT the type of friend I need!!!! Especially if you are trying to tell me that it’s not! Thank you for your 30-days of friendship!!! I truly appreciated it and it meant the world to me for those 30-days.... Literally it meant EVERYTHING!!

Anyway, to make a long story short, because I'm rambling, maybe I'm not the friend you want, but I am a friend who will try to help you get through what you're going through. I'm just delayed in my responses. Thx

I hope that makes sense.

Anyway, different topic: Re: research assistantship: 8 hours, four weeks, diagram the flower reproductive ecosystem (pollen birds, bees), co-author paper. Shall we do it? That would be fun.

I've tried contacting you about this for over a week (to speak), calling you, asking you to pencil me in etc., asking you when you can make time for me. I really did not want to type this through email (any of it) because I know you what understand me, just like you did the entire message that you just responded to with your bulleted numbers 0-5, responding in defense.... Of yourself, and your words, actions, friendship, etc. I wanted to speak with you instead, but ho hum, your ‘circumstances.’

I do not think we should do it (for various reasons) ... mainly because I truly valued our friendship that much more, but now I’m wondering where our friendship even stands based off your responses to me... but I did not want to complicate things and how much I appreciate you, for such a small amount of money and hours when I already know for I fact I will work WAY more than 8 hours per week and already have, and I do not want to be bamboozled either, and I wanted more so to maintain our friendship.....

Do not get me wrong, I 100% want to work with you; I am extremely interested in the topic (you would not know how much so because you have not spoken with me about it or heard any of my thoughts and feelings), but I think we should write a book about that topic, and not just an article, and that it should not be associated with UNM, at least in regards to me, because I will immerse myself into a project as such and nobody can ever pay me enough when I immerse myself into things, truly.... I want to work with you, and I want to help you. And I do think we kind of NEED to work together, for various and different reasons as well.

The book/paper will lead to other things though, and I am concerned about that... and when I express my genuine, authentic and detailed concerns you only write back defending yourself and not addressing my feelings nor concerns, and furthermore you telling me that you "don't do detailed responses" and are "more of a spur-of-the-moment micro messenger" doesn't really make me feel any better about all my detailed messages that I apparently DEMAND responses from, nor does it solidify our abilities to work well together....

I truly think I can help, and when I get a chance I will try to dedicate some time to send in an email about your research, your battles with that, my thoughts, and all the ways I think I can help and be of assistance, if you are willing and able to work with me, and you and I are able to get on the same page and move on from whatever either of us think occurred (or did not occur) in the past 30-days.

Thank you for crossing paths with me, for your friendship, for your kind words and thoughts, and for your countless responses and messages in the past 30-days that I demanded responses from.... Even your spur of the moment micro-messages meant the world to me, and may have even extended my life an additional 30-days, so I'll never take what they meant to me for granted.

Thank you so much, dear friend, as I will treasure that forever... Those moments, and those messages....

The meant the world to me.... And I 100% mean that with every fiber of sincerity and authenticity in my body.....

Okay, just a general comment, and I haven't thought too deeply about any of this, I'm just reacting, so this is my first impressions:

0. You're pretty amazing, and you have an interesting view of life. And I'm happy to have you as a friend.
1. What makes me different is I respond. I'm not like the other people around you who totally ignore you. And I respond because I'm your friend. Unlike Reilly and John Benavidez, I actually have a reputation for NOT responding to students. So the fact that I respond to you means I think you're special.
2. Aside, after thinking about it some more, I don't think Reilly's wife found out anything. I think that's a story he made up because he didn't want to talk to you anymore, because you message a lot and demand a response, and he got tired of responding.
3. Yes, I did tell you to reach out, and I do respond. I just can't respond immediately. But as a friend, I respond. So it's very unfair that you put me in the same category as the Dimitri's and Raj's and Reilly's and other faculty that don't respond at all. Very unfair.
4. Due to my circumstances I can't respond immediately. It's not just that I'm married, I have research and teaching prep to do. You message a lot, throughout the day. My world, as a faculty member, revolves around my research and teaching first. That's not selfish, because in doing that I help other people. See, I don't know how to respond to this B!

So.....basically what you're telling me is that your wife would tell you exactly what you don't even think WR's wife told him?!! ☺

You know....

All of this leaves me in a predicament; and it also does make me wonder how much you do care etc. You mentioned I have to wait and see how much you care, but what if I'm not around to 'wait' and 'see' anymore....

Also, it makes me curious as to how our friendship is even different than mine and WR's (other than that it's more complex and I feel VERY different towards you)....and I'm not comparing you to him btw, I'm legitimately wondering and asking....

I mean, if you're not available to chat (even about PA stuff etc, which I had been trying to chat about for the past week as well), and if you have 5pm curfews, and big projects at home that I should not be interrupting etc.... and no time, hectic schedule, and are too busy and with ppl around etc (not about to chat) the few times I have tried you, AND you tell me directly you cannot be "on call" for me.... and can only respond to my messages at your convenience when I suppose you're not hanging out with, being intimate with, or doing projects for your wife....

Yet,

you're the friend that asked me to be sure and contact you or reach out etc if I ever felt that way so on and so forth and that you'd "Shake me"

<side note: I have a hilarious side story about shaking me, that I'll have to tell you at some point. Happened recently but haven't had the chance to show you>

....

Anyways, I digress... when we first met you indicated to contact you if I ever needed to, and not to hesitate....

....

But then when I do, and I really need you and I really need a friend... then I'm cast aside because it does not conveniently 'fit in' with you or your circumstances..... and I have to wait and see how much you care.... ??

Hey, I do appreciate you A LOT... and I actually really like you a lot too, in ways that are different from friendship; and neither of us can explain how that happened, but it did.... and I'm actually really not too sure how to feel about any of it, nor how you feel about me, and I know you appreciate my perspectives and the way I view the world etc, my creativity... the other nice things you've told me about my intellect so on and so forth... that I'm intriguing and unique, blah blah blah....

Yet, when it comes to other aspects of this uniquely special connection we've found ourselves in... i don't really know what to believe (or think), about any of it, or how to feel.... nor why I feel this way.... and/or why you popped up out of nowhere after literally being there all along.... all the other synchronicity that you and I experienced that we'll apparently now disregard.....

And what are the chances that we'd both randomly feel certain ways - slim to none, is my thoughts.... but then again, I convince myself that you don't really feel these certain ways towards me, and it's just because it was new and exciting to meet someone with different perspectives that you even paid any attention to me in the first place... ☺☹☺

And that'll soon fade just like everything else, and I'll have to keep the magical realms of planet eva to myself....until the not so magical realms get too difficult for me to bear and I will not have the will, gumption nor reasons to continually move forward. ..

I'm really exhausted with my world having to revolve around everybody else's and me always being there for everybody else., and it never being the other way around....

I feel like chopped liver. Like an outcast, completely isolated..., people only care to contact me when it's convenient and "hunky dory" for them and when it makes them happy and comfortable.... it's never out of their way or the other way around.... well In actually, it is the other way around... it's when they need something or some uplifting and when things are not hunky Dory for them then they will also contact me....

What types of friendships are those anyways?? Selfish ones, it seems...

People are damn selfish in general and they want it all... I have so many stories about this, and people, and failed friendships etc.

It's annoying really... and a bit hurtful....

If you cannot be there for me, it's okay...

I'd rather just know that and face that.... than have you string me along all feeling certain ways about you, and getting deeper and deeper into those feelings because I've already felt it, I already feel it, I do not know how to stop it, and I do not know what to do about it

I only know it complicates everything....

I think our options may be limited at this point; we cannot change any of our communications from the past month, and we can pretend they do not exist, or didn't happen, but they did....

I want to tell you how I feel about everything, but when I try.... it gets lost....

And you expect me to keep type type typing away, yet you send me brief one liners saying you read my words and are pondering them, but then nothing further.... no insights into your pondering or thought process or anything... just you saying you are at a loss of words and not knowing how to respond...

Or in your last message when you say stuff like " Well, usually I don't respond because I don't know you want a response, or it's not a big deal to me, but not because it's intentional."

Just to clear things up and clear up your confusion - I typically want a response to EVERYTHING!!! No joke. I don't waste all this time in all this pain when I should be doing a million and one other things to type all these words, thoughts, feelings, and emotions to you... only to have you say you don't respond because you don't know o want a response!!!! No babe wtf!!! I want responses! I 100 want responses to everything or else I would not waste my damn time with it all!wtf B why would you even say that??!

And even more rude and disrespectful is you saying "or it's not a big deal to me" ?!?!

So all my words, feelings, emotions, struggles etc, that I expect responses to, are not a big deal to you!!!!!!??? That is so heartbreaking and hurtful B, truly!!!!

All of this is a BIG deal to ME, ever DAMN word of it!!! It hurts my feelings so bad that you would even somehow indicate that all my typing all the time and energy o didn't writing you about anything is not a big deal to you!!! Just just rip my heart right in hand why don't you??!? ❤️❤️❤️ thanks b! That comment really hurt me deeply...

intentional or not 😞❤️👉

My feelings are hurt, and my heart is really vulnerable..... I know you've broke it before because this all feels to sad and familiar....

I cannot have it broken again.....

Now, we'll remain stuck this way....
For eternity....

Like all the other folks that do not increase their awareness to transcend to next levels.....

....

I feel really sad and broken.... still.

I need to somehow piece myself back together. Thank you for the role you've played in helping me move forward and live on...

Even if it's all temporary and/or short-lived....

As is life 😊

Not gonna lie (in fact I hardly ever lie), but I do miss receiving your messages.... 😊

My inbox is so empty without your messages, B!

Also I think it a bit ironic that this email came in after yours because all this talk about DNA , genetics, and flowers reproducing: o had been wanting to mention this to you, but again, have not had the chance....

Anyways the story behind the story is that after the PA-ship was over with WR, I edited one of his important publications for him.... since I was not working for him anymore, and was essentially just editing the paper to help him out, we had made a deal that if his paper got published.... he would order me one if those damn 23 and me kits because he's really into ancestry, genealogy, history and stuff like etc. (again, due to his 'back story,' or in this case, lack thereof....

Anyways, I wasn't super interested in the DNA thing but I agreed to it anyway simply because I wanted to help him out with his paper....

So I help him out, spend lots of time and hours in his paper, and when it did not get published the first time, after I edited it (not even just for content, but purely editing), it successfully got published....

But of course, but the time the publication was approved, we were no longer friends anymore and it was just yet one broken promises filled with empty words....

So of course I heckled the kid about not coming through on any of his words or promises after I spent so much time helping him, to get his paper published, as a friend...

Anyways after a few months of heckling he sent some $ to me in an envelope through RG. I did not have to use it for the 23 and me thing, but since that was the deal we had made, I went ahead and did it shortly thereafter.... AND THEN I got pissed that I dud the damn report (for no reasons other than him telling me it was cool) and that now somebody had my DNA on file somewhere...

And then after I heckled him for convincing me to do that stupid bullshit and that I wished I never did ...

Anyways, I digress....

I'm not really much of a biology type of gal, or did not used to be,... it simply did not interest me much back in the school days, yet now, so many odd things have been lining up for me to study this.... with my own DNA (eben and human), and also your whole idea with the flower thing! Dude you have no clue how odd that is that you would bring that up and how perfectly it aligns (the topic) with my own flower pictures, footage, images, and just my lifelong connection with flowers..... ha, and I also wasn't kidding that it kind of turns me on, when I said that in my message the other day, except in my hasty and rushed response I believe I said "termed" me on lol.... but I mean I have pictures of close up orchids in my bedroom near my head and if you only knew how much flower footage I have, and that along with all this random and odd dna info that's been crossing my path....

And then my own perspectives on it all, your truly wouldn't believe the synchronicity of what's been happening behind the scenes and with some of the things you brought up that I haven't even made mention of or told you about.,.
Because it's all so

There's some very odd things lining up for me with all of this and it's confusing me even more...

Anyways, point being, of you are interested in genetics (and particularly mine) as well as LOTS of info and reports about it, I can like share my report with you somehow...

Perhaps it will help 'our' research....

....

I do not really know how I 'feel' about any of the results, but I do know that I find it fascinating that 7.0% of my DNA is categorized as "unassigned." Is that not odd???! Totally #PlanetEva alien species DNA right there -> 7.0% 🙄👁👁

Thoughts?

Let me know if you are interested in or want access to my report and I'll see if I can figure it out... thx

Hello Kind Sir,

I had not had the chance to provide my feedback or thoughts on the task list since you sent it to me, so here it is now:

Topics: I think the topics should be in some sort of order; alphabetical perhaps, or by importance, or by something different altogether. Thoughts?

A lot of those topics will likely need their own spreadsheets, because they are big projects; i.e. like the Flor experience one, or the Music project, Bus Footage project etc.

Similarly, same goes for the 1984 and Fahrenheit 451 projects - we will likely need separate spreadsheets, for deadlines etc. We should really start this project btw - reading the chapters, writing the short synopsis, etc. Let me know when you're ready to begin and chip away at this...

Immortal Man: same goes for Immortal Man too. also, did you give up on Immortal man B? you dropped off that bandwagon, and never responded back to my ch 4 stuff. did you hate it? ;)

Dates: Something about the date/s column needs to be changed or updated; perhaps add a "Target End Date" column and then update the current "End Date" column to say "Actual End Date" or something like that... not sure. i just feel it can be somehow improved or adjusted.

Phone Chats: Let me know when you can pencil me in next because I do have lots to say, but you know it kills me to type and write, be hunched over and in pain, etc, so on and so forth.

Priority: Not sure if you want priority level included or not, but if so, you can go add priority levels for those tasks we've already accomplished ;) and fill in any other items on the checklist that i am overlooking.

WHO: also, i am not sure i like the "Who" column/tab etc, or perhaps i do like it and it can be formatted differently,... or perhaps it's fine as is, thoughts?

NVF: btw you got back on the 31st you silly! not 06/01... but perhaps you meant back to your routine on 06/01? ;) What other pending deadlines do you have?

ERC: I have WAY more things to add to this list, no joke... basically everything i did not do ever since i met you... i need you to help me focus on those things and make sure I am making some sorts of steps/productivity in those tasks/writings.

Please add and/or make any updates or suggestions to the attached checklist and respond back with your feedback. Any formatting and re-formatting suggestions of the spreadsheet/s are also appreciated as well.

Thanks kindly,

I listed what I wanted you to do (the flower information reproduction), and if you don't want to do that, it's fine. Really. So I'm going to kill that idea (RAship) now. Besides, I think I can use that money to buy brainwave equipment.

And we can still work on the other projects (flower, bus videos, etc). That'll be fun.

I'm sorry B, but you got me all wrong.

Firstly, you must've completely misunderstood everything I wrote (and that you read), including the fact that I told you I did not want to even type you any of that in the first place, and that I wanted to chat with you about it instead.

I sent you several emails kindly asking you when you could pencil me in to chat specifically about the PA/RA ships and your email saying 8 hours for 4 weeks for room for feedback and changes, etc., and I did respond back to that and asked if we could get on the same page several times, of what you even meant by that...or just chat about it in general before responding back to robin <I'd also wrote that hasty email response to you in regards to your 0-5 points; completely reactively, under not very good conditions while annoyed at you (for your response), while in pain, feeling like a machete was stabbing through my lower right back all the way through my upper left abdomen, and I could not move (all of which I explained to you, various times), All beside the point, but still>.

I do not recall EVER saying or indicating I did NOT want to work on the flower information reproduction. I actually take a bit of offense to you saying that, quite frankly, because what I indicated was quite the opposite!

I told you I LOVED the idea flower information reproduction ide, so much! I wrote you an entire email on that :O and I mentioned you had no clue how much I loved 'the idea' and basically my entire life up til this point has come down to working on this project... etc. so on and so forth.

SO, how you can tell me, "I listed what I wanted you to do (the flower information reproduction), and if you don't want to do that, it's fine. Really. So I'm going to kill that idea (RAship) now," is beyond my understanding. Really.

Where did I ever indicate that I did not want to do or work on the flower information reproduction project?!

If you want to you use that small amount of money for 'brainwave equipment' that's fine, go ahead and do that, it's your prerogative. But please do not indicate that I said or indicated in any way that I did not want to the flower information reproduction. I truly do not know where you gathered that from, why you would say that, or why you would make assumptions as such, and just move on so quickly regardless of anything we'd discussed etc., and not even touching base.

Truly, I do not get it, but it's fine.... probably was meant to go down this way I suppose... i apologize for the obviously major misunderstandings and communication breakdowns we both had in regards to this one....

I guess i am just not understanding what you are saying here; in this email as well as the other one where you say things such as, "We'll still work on those things, just not the ones that have to do with research like the reading 1984 & fahrenheit 451."

or when you say things like, "I just don't think writing about 1984 and Fahrenheit 451 is as good (in terms of research publications) as analyzing writing about propaganda in social media."

and do not see how it's not a good idea or how it does not fit into propaganda and maybe if we started reading and discussing them we would easily identify cool and creative ways of how... and i'm going to do that project on my own anyway, but i thought it was our project (unrelated to UNM) and it was how we originally connected in the first place a month ago! I mean we had entire tweet discussions about this, and then several emails thereafter..... what is it that we are not understanding... and why are you not wanting to do that with me anymore?

and btw, this is completely unrelated to the flower information reproduction thing you mentioned because i was HIGHLY interested in that idea and would've loved to have worked on that with you, and would still love to!

I just do not understand what your deal is with 1984 and Fahrenheit 451 all of a sudden and saying we can work on other things aside from that and that its not a good idea, and that we can do bus videos or whatever...

I do not understand what you are saying, and fine, i guess i'll just do the whole reading and analyzing and synopsis of 1984 and Fahrenheit 451 on my own then since you are randomly backing out of it, but the ENTIRE point of that project was for US to discuss what we read and think together!!

I'm super confused and my feelings are hurt. feels like you are backing out on all sorts of things you said you would do.

and btw i am not backing out on anything and never was, the only reason i said we should not do the PA ship is because i did not understand the whole 8 hours thing and i have never worked on anything for less than 8 hours in a day more or less a week and i did not want to get bamboozled when i would literally be immersing myself into it....

Well the PAship is in the past now so I think it's not useful to discuss it. But the way I remember it is asking you if you wanted to do 8 hours a week, for four weeks, on the process of flower reproduction. And you said you no. Which is fine.

Now as for the 1984 and Fahrenheit 451, I liked that as a means of studying propaganda. But I need to get a publication out this summer quickly on the topic of propaganda and viral message spreading, and IMO the best way for me to do that is to study Trump tweets and look at how both sides try to push their message.

But now that I think about it further, I'm still interested in how Orwell & Bradbury's visions of a dystopian future map to today. So I would like to read those books and summarize. Let's start on this immediately.

Okay as for the question: "Where did we lose each other"

I don't think we did. I went to the MIT conference and got really excited about doing my research again. In May I was so burned out from teaching in Walsh's project management thing that I was ready for doing something different. That's why I really liked your projects. I was sick of academic stuff. But my excitement in my research was rekindled again.

That's one part of the answer. I don't think we lost each other as friends.

But the other part of the answer is: having experienced the end of your cycle, I have a better (but not full, obviously) understanding of the pain you're going through, and I think that I should not make the pain worse. That I should be a real friend, not a romantic friend. Subject: Re: 1984 & Fahrenheit 451

Hey, just an fyi - this is coming from a space of really hurt feelings but below (in purple) is my response to your email:

First off, please do not apologize for this email in regards to 'rambles' because to me, this is not a ramble, and it is actually one of the few emails (of all the hundreds that you have sent me since we met), that I thoroughly and genuinely appreciated (in its honesty and intent)... simply because you attempted to explain yourself, and not just fire off reactionary thoughts that do not address anything (and in some cases, can be extremely condescending and hurtful). SO, thank you so much for that, please do not apologize and please send more responses with detail into your actual thought processes, like this!!

Well the PA ship is in the past now so I think it's not useful to discuss it. But the way I remember it is asking you if you wanted to do 8 hours a week, for four weeks, on the process of flower reproduction. And you said you no. Which is fine.

Why is it in the past now? You're just going to give up on it that easily? And no that is ABSOLUTLEY NOT what happened at ALL, truly Nick, it is not. I have explained to you - countless times what happened and you keep ignoring it. WHY?!!

I never said 'NO!' In fact, begged you "let's chat about it!" and get on the same page. DO you need me to go back and screen shot it all for you so you can see how it went down?

I sent you detailed emails about it and you did not respond, and when you responded today you said we were moving on when we NEVER addressed anything. You formulated assumptions in your own mind and then made decisions and more assumptions based off your own assumptions, without addressing any of it with me, nor my pleading to speak with you; and I cannot believe you did that. A 'real friend' would not do that.

< I wrote the above prior to sending the other messages, but yeah, you are right it is now a thing of the past, it seems>

Now as for the 1984 and Fahrenheit 451, I liked that as a means of studying propaganda. But I need to get a publication out this summer quickly on the topic of propaganda and viral message spreading, and IMO the best way for me to do that is to study Trump tweets and look at how both sides try to push their message.

But now that I think about it further, I'm still interested in how Orwell & Bradbury's visions of a dystopian future map to today. So, I would like to read those books and summarize. Let's start on this immediately.

Uhh, I don't just think up great ideas for nothing!

So, the fact that you would previously tell me it is not good is not only hurtful and condescending, is simply not accurate. It brought us together for a reason! And I would not type you all that excitement about it for nothing! On twitter and through the countless emails and attempts of starting the project. It is still obvious you do not trust me, or my ideas. I wanted to start on it "immediately" since long back, but you always seem to be doubting me and my ideas.

Okay as for the question: "Where did we lose each other"

I don't think we did. I went to the MIT conference and got really excited about doing my research again. In May I was so burned out from teaching in Walsh's project management thing that I was ready for doing something different. That's why I really liked your projects. I was sick of academic stuff. But my excitement in my research was rekindled again.

That's one part of the answer. I don't think we lost each other as friends.

Well, to me it felt that way and I already explained why, and I can actually continue writing pages and pages for days as to why. I truly think we lost each other, and it appears I am more insightful and aware as to why. And it actually feels like we are still losing each other, if not completely lost already.

But the other part of the answer is: having experienced the end of your cycle, I have a better (but not full, obviously) understanding of the pain you're going through, and I think that I should not make the pain worse. That I should be a real friend, not a romantic friend. A friend who is there to listen to you, give my opinions, discuss ideas with you, cheer you up when you're down, defend you if anyone says anything bad about you, play catch & boggle with you, read books etc.

DUDE, honestly you DID NOT experience ANYTHING lmao. You only experienced what you thought you were experiencing based off your own assumptions. Dude, you did not even know me for 30-days and you still hardly know ANYTHING about me, truly (cycles aside).

You already told me that I cannot contact you and that I must've 'misunderstood you' when you told me to promise to contact you if I ever needed to etc. and then you denied it, and said I misunderstood you. But I can search the archives for all those commentaries as well. There were ABSOLUTELY no misunderstandings on my end, from any of our 3 phone conversations, nor our countless messages.

So, what you expect is for me to type, type, type away while in pain (awkward, horrible, uncomfortable pain that you do not care about) and then you say you are "a friend that is there to listen...."

Hey, when have you been here to 'listen' to me? What I recall in the past month is type typing, typing, away hunched over in pain. We have not truly 'discussed' many ideas. And the ones we have discussed you shot down; said they were not good, did not want to do them anymore, and then backed out of the PA-ship altogether and called it a 'thing of the past,' when you did not even have enough respect to chat without about it prior to saying that. Plus, according to Robin and I both it apparently was NOT a thing of the past; that was just the conclusion you came to based off inaccurate assumptions.

< I wrote the above prior to sending the other messages, but yeah, you are right it is now a thing of the past, and the manner of which you approached it all really hurt me>

I do not think you have ever defended me....yet (to my knowledge) and we have never played boggle, catch, or read books, etc. so on and so forth (and I actually doubt any of that will ever come to fruition), similarly to the PA-ship, and you dropping that so quickly like it was hot. And you never even updated the task list after I asked you to in great detail.

So, all those things are aspects that you are, in actuality, NOT doing for me, and you are NOT being that friend that you are describing yourself (and perceiving yourself) as.

And Ironically, that is the ABSOLUTE last thing I need right now is another friend who is describing themselves as a 'real true friend,' and calling themselves a 'real true friend,' but not ACTUALLY BEING or acting like a REAL OR TRUE friend, and this is precisely what has ended a lot of my friendships, historically.... False friendships, one-side, very not true friends.

And just some insight for you; it is not really those broken promises and your short email responses that kept me going...(nor the broken friendship promises).

In actuality, it was instead the idea of a 'romantic friend,' and the sparks of those thoughts (that came out of nowhere), and a lot of those aspects that I had not thought about or felt in a while...that kept me going... not false friendship aspects that i do not trust.

In the process, you helped me realize that is the type of friend I actually need, more so a 'romantic friend' or person...or at least someone who can grasp me (PlanetEva) in those aspects; (figuratively not literally). Not someone who says they are, or claims to be a 'real friend,' only to run away if anything gets tough, or through life's ups and downs) and is actually NOT a real friend; (and is not available to chat, and wants and expects me to type and type away in pain only when it is convenient for them and all of their 'circumstances'.... And they do not give a god damn shit about my circumstances!

BTW - I am not lacking people that want my friendship or desire to be my friend ICYDK!!
<additional side note: you say you are notorious for NOT responding to emails, but I also detailed to you that I have not checked my email this much in over a decade, but I suppose none of that matters to YOU, and you only see your side of things, always, it seems>

so yeah, I am not lacking people that want or desire my friendship. Instead, what I am lacking is people who truly and genuinely care (which it does not seem that you do based off the Impression I am getting). I desire people who do what they say they are going to do (and not the opposite), and who are people of their own word.

I do not need people in my life who do, say and promise all these things, and then do the EXACT OPPOSITE! And then all their empty words, run dry down the drain.

That is literally 100% the EXACT opposite of what type of friendship I currently need, and the exact opposite of what type of person I want or need in my life.

You promised and said a lot of things, and it is apparently all empty, because none of it held any meaning.

...

And DUDE, Imao, Eva is an intense character, and I have an intense personality (cycles aside) so the fact that you are shying about from me because you think 'the cycles' are too intense is absolutely cowardice and inaccurate Imao.

I also have had a broken toe for 11 days out of the 33 that you met me and tons of other stuff going on, (also which you do not care about because you have not even asked how I am doing, and I truly still cannot walk and it hurts the same as it did 11-days ago (nothing to do with cycles) and you still do not or did not seem to care....or even ask).

So, for you to read my messages for 30-days and decide and come to your little conclusion that 'the ending cycles' are too intense for you (when you were basically mostly absent during those few days) and that you are going to pretend to be my 'real friend' now and not a 'romantic friend' because of it, lol, dude I'm sorry but again you got me ALL wrong, and so many assumptions flowing through that mind of yours that it is completely silly.

You promised so many times you would not give up on me blah blah blah, that you would trust me, blah blah blah, so on and so forth, sooo many things as such.

You also have NO CLUE how I even work, it's COMPLETELY OBVIOUS by you saying that I said 'no, I did not want to work with you' or do the PA ship and then you just giving up on everything and all your words so easily. I did not perceive you as that type of person AT ALL, but I suppose I was wrong.

It does make me laugh though that you would tell me all those things and then to somehow think you are helping me by being a supposed 'real friend' and not helping me with ANY SORT OF PAIN whatsoever or anything you said you would do or help with, or be there for, lol. That does not help me N, not at all.

Anyway, I really want to stay your friend. I like your observations. I like talking with you. I like the songs you give me and the pictures and the videos. I want to work with you to help you organize all those things into a single medium.

It all seems so one-sided, truly. And highly disappointing.

Sorry for the rambling.

My feelings are hurt. Romantic friend, or 'real friend' aside... you really did hurt my feelings, which is 100% not helpful to me. Thanks for trying though.

I'm done, and back deep into the sunken place, and it has ABSOLUTELY NOTHING to do with cycles, and more so to do with the type of person and friend I thought you were, but now it feels otherwise...

...

Subject: Re: Catch

So, here's the deal in regards to this:

I've already told you on multiple occasions, i avoid campus as much as possible. I always have. Basically at all costs, and i do not go there just to hang out for no apparent reasons.

I'm only there for any classes I must be in attendance for, and/or if I need to meet up with somebody.... otherwise you will not find me lingering around campus just for the sake of it (which is also another odd thing about the day we met, because I had a client final presentation at 10am, and i think we met (you and I) around 11;11 wish based off everything i can remember from that time and day (as well as how long it took the client presentation).

Also, as a side note, I was not even supposed to meet with Raul that day (nor was he planning on going to campus) so it was only be sheer chance that you and i met (coincidence).

Re:Catch

I do not know why you have gone back on just about every word you have ever told me, and now even for CATCH! :O

<insert the most shock emoji of all here>

geez, buddy you are progressingly becoming more and more lame each day with every word you do not uphold to.

since i avoid campus other than having to be there for class (or unless i absolutely need to be there), then i do not think the likelihood of me showing to campus so that you and i could 'supposedly play catch' will be very high.

...

Like I've told you before, i was thinking more like mitts at a park (which i thought would help my back) instead of typing you all these messages that you condescendingly 'skim' through, and overlook and disregard the majority of important aspects, and do not care about #EXTREMELYRUDE

I'm truly not sure what sort of 'real friend' would do that, at all.

We also have already specifically discussed NOT playing catch at ASM, but, truly, I guess that nothing i say holds any sort of meaning to you whatsoever... Is that what is really going on?

Not that i am opposed to play catch with a football, because i can catch and throw a football just as well as i can catch and throw any other type of ball... but i'm not about to make a random trip to campus to supposedly play catch with a supposed friend who i know will not coordinate or go through with that as is.... (same as all the other things he says, and then takes back).....

And if we were going to be working together that would be one story, but since apparently not only will we not be working together, and you dropped all your words on the GAsheps, 1985, Fahrenheit 451, your friendship, and all sorts of other things and now you are even trying to do the same thing about catch? wow, buddy. just wow. i don't even understand how any could stoop so low, actually...

""

And on a genuine note - I know you are going to take offense to this but i truly mean it and am not trying to be rude or condescending....

Yet, i truly do not see how your actions and behaviors are any different from Sarah smith's or Reilly Whites. can you please answer me as to how they are ? because you avoiding everything important i ask you or tell you actually does not prove otherwise...

You said several things, and then went back on your words... I do not see how that is any different than what they did in my experiences with them both (and from everything i have already shared with you about that with both of them)

... you say that you are different because you respond to me, but as i have already mentioned to (of which you disregarded) they both responded to me just fine, and actually did not overlook and avoid huge chunks of content as you do, or just 'skim' through things.....

The only difference, that I can identify, is that you were writing me all these intimate things (which they did not).

I mean really, you were the one that first called me babe, and lover, and all sorts of things, and asked if you could kiss my neck while caressing my back; and a whole series of other intimate aspects and empty promises; and then you are just going to randomly pretend like none of happened and send me this ridiculous couple line email and tell me you want to be my 'real friend' now when you never treated me as a 'real friend' nor even responded to any of my commentary WHATSOEVER in regards to anything of that or why you tried to pull back and pretend non of it happened it the first place, and like if we were actually 'real friends' as you claim to be?

Seriously though, Nick... I am 100% in all genuineness and friendship asking you - "Why Would you do all of that?"

I 100% would like to know, and i think i deserve more of a response then these condescending messages you have been sending me.

Trust me, I have plenty more to say (and i will say it, and i will continue to ask you until you answer me and quit avoiding everything i ask you)... and things like this cannot really be swept under the rug with me, like you're trying to do by just blatantly avoiding everything i am asking and telling you.

I did not really see you as the type of person to behave in such ways and manners, but i would truly appreciate more of a response in regards to all of this.

Thanks kindly,

So, you say Mary Margaret Rogers is your new boss?

I find it incredibly fascinating (and ironic) that not only is Mary Margaret Rogers awaiting my written feedback on the Exit Exam, but she is also awaiting (and asked for) my written feedback on my experiences at Anderson, thus far, and also Anderson Faculty, as I told her I would send.

Although I have not met her in-person yet...we did have a great rapport and I gave her high praises that based off our interactions I think she would do a great job as Department Chair.

Have you pondered how simple and easy it would be for me to slide a simple screenshot into her DM's and see how well she really does first-hand at her new department chair role? just curious...

Or imagine this one instead: Imagine me replying to those UNM PA-ship emails (with all those ladies included) and say, "Has anybody heard from Nick? He sent me the attached correspondence on June 5th, and I have not heard much from him since?"

I do not know what any of those ladies' faces look like (as I have not met them in person yet, other than Robin and her intense black eye that one time)....

Nonetheless, even though I do not know what their faces look like, it's still fun to picture and imagine what their faces would look like if I were to send them those screenshots (attached) with that short message through the UNM email 📧👁

Talk about the spread of propaganda, lmao.

Not only would they blow a freaking gasket or two, and their minds would have exploded (beyond one's own imagination), shortly thereafter that shit would spread like wildfire so rapidly and quickly, you (or anybody else) would not even know what happened, lol.

I'm certain you do not find the whole scenario as humorous as I do... but take this as a great reminder that you should definitely be more careful when you are haphazardly and carelessly saying such non-truths and making such empty promises to supposed 'bff's' who you are supposedly hiring as your PA.

I mean, get real Nick, seriously - you wrote that shit on June 5th, which is less than 20-days ago... so again, as I have already asked you before, “How are you going to pretend that none of it happened, stop responding to my messages, go back on all your empty words and promises and then tell me such immature, pathetic and nonsensical crap and excuses as “ having experienced the end of your cycle, I have a better (but not full, obviously) understanding of the pain you're going through, and I think that I should not make the pain worse. That I should be a real friend, not a romantic friend. A friend who is there to listen to you, give my opinions, discuss ideas with you, cheer you up when you're down, defend you if anyone says anything bad about you, play catch & boggle with you, read books etc.”

And then when I respond back and ask you about those things directly – you do not have even have the respect, integrity or dignity to respond with any type of decent answer or valid response. Part of my response to that was the below (of which of course, you rudely disregarded, yet again).

“I sent you detailed emails about it and you did not respond, and when you responded today you said we were moving on when we NEVER addressed anything. You formulated assumptions in your own mind and then made decisions and more assumptions based off your own assumptions, without addressing any of it with me, nor my pleading to speak with you; and I cannot believe you did that. A ‘real friend’ would not do that.”

And furthermore, here is the rest of my response that you rudely and blatantly ignored (with no regard whatsoever), ALL of which I STILL do expect responses to.

I am not sure what type of person you thought of me that you could send me all these messages and then just avoid me altogether and not respond.... But stuff like that typically does not work out with me.

All I have to say is that you best start responding to these serious inquires and questions of mine because you obviously know nothing about an Eva or how an Eva works or you truly would’ve never claimed or stated to be ‘my new bff’ tell me all these empty words and broken promises, only to take back every single word you previously stated, and that not respond AT ALL to my responses to you.

If you knew absolutely anything about me whatsoever, you would have thought twice about backing out of all your words, and not responding to me directly (which I find childish, immature and lame, and find it difficult to imagine a 54-year old who claimed to be my new best friend, as behaving in these manners).

“DUDE, honestly you DID NOT experience ANYTHING lmao. You only experienced what you thought you were experiencing based off your own assumptions. Dude, you did not even know me for 30-days and you still hardly know ANYTHING about me, truly (cycles aside).

You already told me that I cannot contact you and that I must've 'misunderstood you' when you told me to promise to contact you if I ever needed to etc. and then you denied it, and said I misunderstood you. But I can search the archives for all those commentaries as well. There were ABSOLUTELY no misunderstandings on my end, from any of our 3 phone conversations, nor our countless messages.

So, what you expect is for me to type, type, type away while in pain (awkward, horrible, uncomfortable pain that you do not care about) and then you say you are "a friend that is there to listen...."

Hey, when have you been here to 'listen' to me? What I recall in the past month is type typing, typing, away hunched over in pain. We have not truly 'discussed' many ideas. And the ones we have discussed you shot down; said they were not good, did not want to do them anymore, and then backed out of the PA-ship altogether and called it a 'thing of the past,' when you did not even have enough respect to chat without about it prior to saying that. Plus, according to Robin and I both it apparently was NOT a thing of the past; that was just the conclusion you came to based off inaccurate assumptions.

< I wrote the above prior to sending the other messages, but yeah, you are right it is now a thing of the past, and the manner of which you approached it all really hurt me >

I do not think you have ever defended me.... yet (to my knowledge) and we have never played boggle, catch, or read books, etc. so on and so forth (and I actually doubt any of that will ever come to fruition), similarly to the PA-ship, and you dropping that so quickly like it was hot. And you never even updated the task list after I asked you to in great detail.

So, all those things are aspects that you are, in actuality, NOT doing for me, and you are NOT being that friend that you are describing yourself (and perceiving yourself) as.

And Ironically, that is the ABSOLUTE last thing I need right now is another friend who is describing themselves as a 'real true friend,' and calling themselves a 'real true friend,' but not ACTUALLY BEING or acting like a REAL OR TRUE friend, and this is precisely what has ended a lot of my friendships, historically.... False friendships, one-side, very not true friends.

And just some insight for you; it is not really those broken promises and your short email responses that kept me going... (nor the broken friendship promises).

In actuality, it was instead the idea of a 'romantic friend,' and the sparks of those thoughts (that came out of nowhere), and a lot of those aspects that I had not thought about or felt in a while...that kept me going... not false friendship aspects that I do not trust.

In the process, you helped me realize that is the type of friend I actually need, more so a 'romantic friend' or person...or at least someone who can grasp me (PlanetEva) in those aspects; (figuratively not literally). Not someone who says they are, or claims to be a 'real friend,' only to run away if anything gets tough, or through life's ups and downs) and is actually NOT a real friend; (and is not available to chat, and wants and expects me to type and type away in pain only when it is convenient for them and all of their 'circumstances'.... And they do not give a god damn shit about my circumstances!

BTW - I am not lacking people that want my friendship or desire to be my friend ICYDK!! <additional side note: you say you are notorious for NOT responding to emails, but I also detailed to you that I have not checked my email this much in over a decade, but I suppose none of that matters to YOU, and you only see your side of things, always, it seems>

so yeah, I am not lacking people that want or desire my friendship. Instead, what I am lacking is people who truly and genuinely care (which it does not seem that you do based off the Impression I am getting). I desire people who do what they say they are going to do (and not the opposite), and who are people of their own word.

I do not need people in my life who do, say and promise all these things, and then do the EXACT OPPOSITE! And then all their empty words, run dry down the drain.

That is literally 100% the EXACT opposite of what type of friendship I currently need, and the exact opposite of what type of person I want or need in my life.

You promised and said a lot of things, and it is apparently all empty, because none of it held any meaning. “

There was much more to that email of which you rudely did not respond to, but that is the response to your lame excuse of your lack of friendship, and also your ability and ways in taking back every word you ever said to me.

One would think that you would have learned enough about me by now to know that is not the way I function or work; I am 100% relentless and if I do not think something is fair, right or appropriate I will be there to the bitter end making sure it is addressed (even if be 10-15years down the road) and that has historically proven to be the case time and time again.

Again, just express the truth to about what happened, in actuality?

Is it because I do not cake make-up on my face like your cousin that you flirted with through fb for literally months and months on end when she supposedly your student? Is it because I think lipstick is clown stuff and find it highly disgusting? Is it because I confessed to you that I think long nails are gross? Or because I do not have fake eyelashes that fall off or get taken off after on the gunked up make-up on the top and bottom lashes, lmao.

Is it because my confidence is not soaring as high as it used to be? Is it because I do not wear high-heels? Or perhaps because I would've guessed 5'7" as your height to make you feel good?

I do not believe you that you stopped contacting me because you supposedly "experienced the end of your cycle, I have a better (but not full, obviously) understanding of the pain you're going through, and I think that I should not make the pain worse."

I'm telling you that you did not experience anything at all, and what type of bs friend says shit like that anyway? It's like "I know I promised you all these things and said all these empty words, but I meant none of it." And you did ABSOLUTELY nothing for me other than make it all worse by being yet another person who I cannot trust their words, or their empty bull crap friendship promises.

What type of immature child would do and say that, really?

I truly thought only immature children did such things and took part in such games. I guess not though.... And I learned that LONG back. I supposed I must have forgot.

I promise my feelings will not get hurt, because the fact that you pretended to be my friend (when i needed a real friend most) and then backed out of every single word you ever said, and then shyed away from me after i opened up about insecurities of which you made assumptions about.... because you've already hurt me by doing all those things, more so than assuming, egotistical and omniscient mind of yours could ever imagine - no joke! what you did was extremely rude and hurtful and i can hardly believe it even occurred in real life. But trust me, I believe it....and I am not surprised....

Also, I did not reread this email; I do not care either, and I am not going to think twice before sending it either... especially since you've already went back on so many of your words already (basically anything you've ever told me).

I will promise to anxiously await your responses before doing anything irrational, but still, that's not saying much since my feelings are truly hurt that you would do like a Reilly White did; claim to be my friend (amongst other things), and then take all your meaningless words back and think you could just avoid me, and not respond with anything truthful, honest or meaningful.

Subject: "Man on Pause"

One day if we ever correspond again, I'll have to tell you the RG "Man on Pause" story from the other day....

All I have to say is that if the dude makes this shit up on his own, then he should definitely be doing stand-up comedy instead of being in an instructor at Anderson... because he's straight hilarious....

Also, side note: I'm likely going to have to tell him that I sent you all those messages, screenshots and videos of him because as of right now, that's really the only thing you could hold against me; and he is my friend so I would rather just be honest with him as to what I did and why I did it, and also so that you do not have anything to hold against me....

Speaking of RG, Lmao homeboy sure as h*ll got an earful from me today about the ridiculousness and absurdity of Anderson Faculty and instructors, lmao, the dude truly must've thought I lost my mind.

Like "honey just breathe." And "Where are you, are you outside?"

Types of stuff. lol lmao

Lmao I don't believe anybody has ranted and raved so much to him EVER lmao, I almost could not breathe because I was on a roll talking so much damn shit lmao

I 100 % wish he would've recorded me today during my rant, when I was ranting about ASM instructors, and also telling him about me tweets, all at the same time, lmao. That would be beautifully hysterical if he somehow recorded all that damn hilariously truthful, yet insightful and funny ass shit I said about Anderson instructors....

Never a dull moment in #PlanetEva that's for damn sure! 🙄👎👎👎👎

Also, please be sure to get back to me soon on that Mary Margaret Rogers email because I think you'll be alarmed once I actually do what I say I was going to do in that email, to the ladies on the PA-ship email, simply to prove a point in regards to your non-responses as well as ignoring my messages.

I will be not so patiently awaiting....

Thanks ever so kindly,

Suicide

Tuesday at 11:02 AM

So, I comment 7 comments on your lame suicide article that you felt was somehow beneficial to "help others" and you do not "acknowledge" a single damn one of them...

Yet, your silly ass cousin posts about: "I really hope that Damien is dreaming about Denny's, IHOP, or Weck's because we're going when he wakes up."

And you can immediately acknowledge, like, and comment on it? 🤔 Lmao

Wow. Extremely important stuff there that you feel the need to acknowledge!

I'm going to write a thesis paper on it. So much research out there on this topic just with you and Reilly White alone....

2:35 PM

Except you're the capstone character in the paper now, and Reilly White has now taken on a secondary role...., it's truly mind blowing and disgusting... the amount of research I have on this topic alone, just between you and him

I find it disconcerting that nobody gives a shit about me or my actual real-life deep pain, and actual real trauma and "sob stories." Pain that supposedly you cared about at first, but then your care faded just as quickly as you came into my life... I truly have never understood how people could be so blatantly lame and fake, and I truly never will. I find it heart-breaking and hurtful though

From my perspective me meeting you at a very low point in my life and you carelessly making all these empty promises like if you were WR, and saying you would always be there for me, I was your new bff, if I ever needed you to contact you, that you cared, that we were going to work together, do great thing together, publish articles, and books, etc. so on and so forth and whatever other fake and lame promises you made within a 28-day period only to take back every last word of EVERY SINGLE DAMN thing that you said from playing catch, to sending me positive vibes and loving energy, to every last word of it - ALL BS! As promised, I have revived the below messages from the grave, since you never read nor acknowledged ANY of it the first few times I sent it all, and not even a single response on any of it (likely because you do not know how to respond about all your false truths, empty words, and BS lies).

But since I am a person of my word (unlike you) and since I promised to revive this message from the dead and continue to send it until you actually acknowledge it.

Piss, I know this is part of the reason why you started shifting away from me and backing out of all your words in the first place, because I was able to see right through (and call you out on) all your BULLSHIT lies and denial - early on... and you still continued to lie through your freaking teeth about it all, and continued to remain in denial.

Why can't you just acknowledge what I am saying to you, and man-up and admit to the fact that you were being pathetic and are indeed not a man of your word.

You obviously have no clue how timing is of the essence on this one, lol. and you definitely do not know anything about me it all by the way you are reacting and non-responding.... do you think that is going to make me stop? LOL, no, in fact it does the EXACT opposite (in case you have not noticed, it encourages me even more to make everybody aware that you are not a person of your word, and or not loyal, true, genuine, honest, or authentic).

when i cause all sorts of unnecessary drama and trouble for you and you want to try and address then or "eventually" i will seriously be like, "dude cash me outside how bout dat!"

nah, but really, i will be like "fool, i told you a thousand times... and you did not listen!" i'll be like "you must've had wax in your ears and are going blind in your eyes, because i could not be more clear with you on what all of this would

I am just merely a student struggling to live my life each day and not kill myself or commit suicide, but the lies, empty words, broken promises and condescending nature of instructors who claim to be my friend and who are supposed to be grown men and legitimate adult mentors and professionals.... is not helping my well-being or mental state of affairs in the least....

I find it completely ignorant and careless of you to behave in these manners, when literally ALL of this could have been prevented... and you still will not respond to me... so you must not believe me when i say none of it matters to be and when i get in these modes i could care less about how any of this will affect you because it's obvious you never have a damn shit about me or cared about me in any type of way... even as an instructor, person or friend....

6:50 AM

I even specifically told you, verbatim, on several occasions:

"If you're my friend, truly - then you can know you can TRUST me 100%, that i will never intentionally hurt or attack you, frustrate you etc.

However, on the other hand, if you are not my friend, that is a different story and i can 100% not make those promises...."

You claimed to have understood, but you obviously did not because you have NEVER demonstrated any type of friendship to me, and when i directly asked you about when you have amongst several other things - of course, you did not have the decency nor dignity to respond (as per the usual)

as far as i am concerned, you were NEVER a friend to me, and have NEVER upheld a single DAMN word of yours....

I am not breaking any promises whatsoever... i told you if you were i friend to me then you would know that you could trust me with your life basically - 100%.

i also adamantly declared to you "However, on the other hand, if you are not my friend, that is a different story and i can 100% not make those promises...."

I am therefore not breaking any promises because you were never a friend to me. the EXACT OPPOSITE of a FRIEND actually, you were the anti-friend coming in disguise as a fraud facade.... and i feel for it too! and i fell for it hard.... and i greatly disrespect you because of it all as well as your definite lack of respect for your supposed friends!!!

Yo Eva, got your message. Well here's the thing, at the end of the semester, when we first started communicating, I had a lot of free time, but after my MIT presentation many research opportunities opened up so I've been focusing on my research — that and a new online course, which has to be completed by July. Bottom line: these things have to get done over the summer, so I don't have a lot of free time anymore.

I'll be minimizing my time on all communications and social media until I finish. But I will get to your messages eventually.

Stay well.

And the fact that cannot just communicate with me

You want me to just continue heckling you until I do things that you would not believe I would do based off how you've acted and treated me..... ?

Just go ahead and respond to that and it would be great ... the more you do not respond, the more it will continue to become an issue.... like I already told you....

So, you're telling students you're going to make them famous? Lol (See attached). And then responding with "Once you're in graduate school I'll tell you."

Lmao...hmmm. Ummm... okkkkkk, if you SAY SO!

I'm telling you, I can send these kids a Chris Record YouTube link and guaranteed they will learn more about 'becoming famous' on social media from his free trainings than any $1600 thrown down the drain for a ASM course, and obsessed professors claiming to make self-proclaimed "make-up and attention whores" famous...

I mean, come on really??!! Give me a break Nick, you are really telling students you can help 'make them famous' and then (once they realize you cannot make them famous) you follow it up with , "Once you're in graduate school I'll tell you??!!"
Haha! WOW!

Lmao – I'm sure the suspense and anticipation is killing her!

Just wait til she finds out that you (nor John Benavidez) are never going to make her famous, and by sharing profile pics of your face as a farm animal with caked on make-up otherwise, that is only liked by your instructors (who are obsessed with you), is definitely not anyway of becoming famous!! Probably the furthest route ever of becoming famous!

Also, I find it wildly interesting how you claim to hate duck-lips and ripped jeans, yet you are one of 3 people who liked and 'acknowledge' your little cousin's profile pic with a snap chat filter as a farm animal and also the same goes for her ripped jeans pics!

LMAO NICK YOU'RE HILARIOUS!!! YOU LOVE ripped jeans, duck-lips, caked on make queen self-proclaimed insecure make-up and "attention whores"!!! LMAO that's wild!!! I could NEVER in a million years bring myself to like or acknowledge a farm-animal filter pic of ANYBODY, I do not care if they were my cousin that had a TBI or if it were my best friend, or family member... but I am glad you and John Benavidez (but especially YOU) feel the need to acknowledge every single BS pic or tweet regardless of how unintelligent, ridiculous, and pointless this kid's tweets are, that you guys are crushing on....

Now I know why you defended yourself so awkwardly and ridiculously the first time I brought this up when I actually had NO IDEA the extent of your obsession with this chic!!! And also, the hypocritical nature of all the things you said about facades, duck-lips, ripped jeans, and the fact that you claim you are "known for" NOT responding to students hahahaha lmao – I suppose that means any student who is not your tweeting kissing cousin named Katherine Anne Tarin!

You seriously have me LAUGHING HARD about ALL of this stuff that you said the opposite of and about... it's actually all rather shocking too though! I am so glad I got to see your true colors and that you basically mean the opposite of everything you said and say.... I laugh every time I read those emails about how lame you were being, the series of excuses you gave in defending yourself and the "sob stories," and all of it....

I seriously had no clue the extent of this all at that point. I was at first only talking crap about how such ridiculous tweets could be at the top of your list to acknowledge, but I literally did not know how DEEP it all ran until yesterday when I did that search for my research paper... wildest shit I've seen in a while! Like I said in all my messages, I found it highly disturbing (yet somewhat entertaining) and I still do not understand why you adamantly claimed to be any different from JC, WR, DK, JB, or any of those guys... can you please inform me again of why you say you are or claim to be any different from those guys and all their immature and blatant flirtations and behaviors with 'current' or 'former students' in their classes.... Because I sure as heck do not see any distinct differences other than that you claimed to be my friend, you claimed to be there for me, and all sorts of other bullshit that they never did, but that you had the nerve and disrespect to do, and then only to take it all back! WOW, my mind is still blown that you were so adamant about it, and also that I trusted your empty words so intently....

Thank you so much for all this content for my research paper thesis. I actually do not know if I could thank you enough for that, as it is the only silver lining I see out of this ENTIRE situation of crossing paths with you, and us meeting... I've literally never had an instructor in undergraduate or graduate school give me SOOOOOOO much content in such a short amount of time; contrary to all of his supposed words and friendship!!! it's wild!!!

All of your empty friendship words and facades have caused me nothing but stress and pain as well... like disgusting amounts of stress and pain; fair worse than prior to me meeting you and receiving all your bullshit empty words, and lies, and lies and lies...that kept me going for a while there, when I still trusted you and believed in you.

And btw – you never did tell me you cousin's sob story, but I am taking it from the looks of it that the sob story is that she dated a guy before she was 20-years old or so that did not treat the 'make-up queen' the way she should have been treated, and then some other girl (perhaps one did who did not value make-up over life) who the school boy said was 'just his friend' then after when he likely got tired of said make-up queen 'attention whore persona' decided the other girl was more than just a friend (and likely a much better catch, partner, and lover (than your cousin) that did not judge people's personality's by eyebrows or make-up or who go broke trying to look decent until your face is 'blended' so much it is no longer your face anymore...., and then the young boy likely ended up marrying the new naturally pretty 'friend' that did not need to cake make-up on in order to feel superior to others..... it's actually ironic because I am still not sure why I did it, but I expressed all my insecurities to you and you did not give it any respect whatsoever.... But I actually do feel bad for this girl because it's obvious that girls that feel the need to cake on such intensive amounts of make-up (and then brag about it as their security shield) are typically the most insecure of all... but hey, no need for her to worry about that, right? Because she has Professor Nick F and Professor John B there to obsess over her, acknowledge every single social media tweet of hers, and make her feel better about herself after experiencing such horrid "sob stories" in life! Lucky girl indeed! <insert major eye-rolling emoji here> and what an amazing duty and role for you and professor benavidez to take on, but mostly YOU!!! lol you literally responded to 99.9999 of all this girls ridiculousness ... it's become greatly apparent where all your priorities have been the past few years, and also why you are so busy to uphold your words, or the Ga-ship, the plans to work together, research, or anything else you said that meant nothing whatsoever!

And then, of course, to top it off, she also has anxiety, is insecure about herself, especially without those utterly fake and artificial eye-lashes and hair-color, (and the fact that she literally has no eye-lashes without those fake-ass gunk ones that children are calling eye-lashes now-a-days), and that other than her two former instructors that are obsessed with her and her highlighted face on fleek, lmao, then nobody would be giving her attention.

And then of course, Aaron Carter (whoever the F that is, lmao) has not followed her back yet, and she loves to brag about her drinking (of which you apparently LOVE) and how she will someday be famous and have a career on social media all because of Professor F and Professor Benavidez's training!?? LMAO

NICK – that is actually not called a “sob story” AT ALL - that is called life.... well, the very last part of the whole story with Prof F and Prof B supposedly getting the kid famous, well that does indeed sound a bit sob-story wish (for anybody to believe that), but I mean the part about her school girl boyfriend marrying somebody else or her having anxiety and being insecure, lmao – NICK that is NOT a sob story! Haha. If those are the “sob stories” that you are referring to like may you like, like like like away and everything she does or says, than these little children have obviously not experienced sob stories yet!!! And Wow, if these are what people are considering “sob stories” these days -then wow, just wow.

I find it disconcerting that nobody gives a shit about me or my actual real-life deep pain, and actual real trauma and “sob stories.” (Even you who pretended to and claimed to, and literally PROMISED to do anything to help – again all blatant lies). Pain that supposedly you cared about at first, but then your care faded just as quickly as you came into my life... I truly have never understood how people could be so blatantly lame and fake, and I truly never will. I find it heart-breaking and hurtful though

From my perspective me meeting you at a very low point in my life and you carelessly making all these empty promises like if you were WR, and saying you would always be there for me, I was your new bff, if I ever needed you to contact you, that you cared, that we were going to work together, do great thing together, publish articles, and books, etc. so on and so forth and whatever other fake and lame promises you made within a 28-day period only to take back every last word of EVERY SINGLE DAMN thing that you said.... from playing catch, to sending me positive vibes and loving energy, to every last word of it – ALL BS! And all of your reasoning was so fake and lame and you could not answer me directly or honestly through the countless times I asked you and through the countless times I pleaded to speak with you about it all, so that I did not have to hunch over and type you in pain, of which you obviously did not give a shit about in the least!

And the fact that you do not have the respect or dignity to respond or communicate with me directly, and you keep making up these stupid lame excuses and claiming you are too busy to be a person of your word, all while you have the time to flirt on twitter with your kid cousin and a routinely and regular basis and 'acknowledge' and comment on literally the stupidest shit I have EVER read in my ENTIRE life... and then after you tell me you basically acknowledge all the stupidest crap in the world on twitter whether you like it or not, and that is why you felt the need to acknowledge every single one of your cousin's tweets for over going on 2-years, YET I (your supposed friend) sends you stuff about articles, or real-true tweets about suicide and you blatant ignore ALL of IT!!! obviously her immature drinking and make-up tweets take higher precedence, it obvious.

And the last time we did speak was on May 31st in the middle of the night only for me to help YOU out and talk you through your 'hot sweat' and make you feel better about your presentation, but do you give a sh*t to call me or contact me when you said you would – OF COURSE NOT! Because it is not selfishly convenient for you or somehow benefitting you, then your supposed friendship apparently disappears right down the drain.... you still never answered me on wtf type of friend does that anyways? But apparently is a false fake friend who never meant a damn word of what he said in the first place!!!

I literally want to cry just typing you this with how much you truly hurt me and how terrible i now feel... I wish we could go back in time and that I would've never magically got directed to RG's office that day at 11:11 whenever I was not supposed to meet him in the first place, and he was not planning to be on campus... I truly wish I could go back and have made a different decision that day..... because you will NEVER truly know what your FALSE friendship has done to me, and the fact that I trusted you, especially when I told you how extremely hard it was for me to trust.... I actually am crying as I type this because I find you extremely rude, hurtful and dishonest.... and it hurts my feelings so bad that I ever trusted you with anything in the first place; with my words, with my friendship, my insecurities, my trust, my heart, everything.... but mostly my friendship.... I feel like you stabbed me in the back and tricked me harder than any false friend ever has in my life, and you hurt me far more than Reilly White ever did because Reilly never told me the half of the bullshit that you did, and he never lied to me either like you did.... I actually know more about Reilly White than you will ever know, which is also why and how I know that he did not blatantly lie to me as you did and have!

What hurts me even more is that you said you would NEVER hurt me in this lifetime and that is literally the ONLY thing you did for me, or to me, in this lifetime - is hurt me more than anybody ever has!!!

Let's just be honest Nick, I could totally commit suicide today and you would not give a shit at all.... You would continue on with your supposed research, sharing Donald Trump's tweets (like if that means anything to anybody by you doing that) and your lame blatant public rampant twitter flirtations with your crush on our cousin and everything else would continue on as normal, and all the research I could have helped you with, or editing I could've done, or work we could've done together all down the drain....all your BS words – down the drain... all your promises – all for naught and only to intentionally hurt me.

To me, that is much more of a sob story then your little cousin and her school girl relationship not working out for her the way she would've liked....

Especially the fact that you and your empty words and broken promises have contributed to me feeling worse than I ever have in my life, not able to trust the BS words that anybody ever tells me again, and the fact that you truly never cared, hurts me more than you will ever know....

I wish there was a way I could explain to you how you have made me feel, but without me killing myself in the name of you and all your lies, empty words, broken promises, excuses and just downright immaturity.... There are really no words to express what you did and how you made me feel other than me doing that.... But I know you would not give a shit anyways if I did do that (despite anything you told me previously) and would continue on with your little world, more facades, and likely more empty words and lots more flirtation with the school girl that you are blatantly obsessed with

You're the biggest sob story of my life, and I truly have never had ANYBODY ever tell me so many bullshit fake empty words in such a short amount of time. EVER!!EVER

I find you highly rude and extremely hurtful.... Seemingly heartless even... and very selfish!

Thanks for hurting me more than anybody ever has, truly. That is the way I will always think of and remember you....

YOU being extremely hurtful with all your empty words, as well as your BLATANT and non-stop flirting with a young school on twitter who you claimed to be your cousin from embarrassment of your blatant flirtations and self-realizations that you can deny it all you want but it's blatantly obvious.... I literally have NEVER seen anything like that before in my life! Not with WR, not with Jim Cormier, not even with Rob Del Campo or John Benavidez... NEVER... only you with YOU! Those tweets are what I am referring to.... I've have not observed anything like it before, especially so blatant ... and that's why I find it all so highly disturbing.... Along with all the things you told me that were basically meaningless and the opposite of what you really meant.

Just want to make sure that you received this, that you understand the importance of it, as well as the fact that I do indeed expect a response from you. If you do not respond I'll either forward it on or written it for Mary Margaret Rogers, Kathryn Jacobson, Craig White and/or whoever else needs to address it since you are not addressing it responding to any of it, and it's extremely important to me. The fact that you are ignoring the importance of it and how much it means also indicates that you could care less....

Only focused on yourself I suppose.... which is odd why you not care about any of this since it affects you directly.

So, you're telling students you're going to make them famous? Lol (See attached).
And then responding with "Once you're in graduate school I'll tell you."

Lmao...hmmm. Ummm... okkkkkk, if you SAY SO!

I'm telling you, I can send these kids a Chris Record YouTube link and guaranteed they will learn more about 'becoming famous' on social media from his free trainings than any $1600 thrown down the drain for a ASM course, and obsessed professors claiming to make self-proclaimed "make-up and attention whores" famous...

I mean, come on really??!! Give me a break Nick, you are really telling students you can help 'make them famous' and then (once they realize you cannot make them famous) you follow it up with , "Once you're in graduate school I'll tell you??!!"

Haha! WOW!

Lmao – I'm sure the suspense and anticipation is killing her!

Just wait til she finds out that you (nor John Benavidez) are never going to make her famous, and by sharing profile pics of your face as a farm animal with caked on make-up otherwise, that is only liked by your instructors (who are obsessed with you), is definitely not anyway of becoming famous!! Probably the furthest route ever of becoming famous!

Also, I find it wildly interesting how you claim to hate duck-lips and ripped jeans, yet you are one of 3 people who liked and 'acknowledge' your little cousin's profile pic

Professor B s,

I know you may think i am being irrational, which there may be a bit of truth there....but i have valid reasons for my irrationalities.... what are your valid reasons?

the fact of the matter is that you are being FAR more irrational than i am being, by simply NOT responding to me, and not upholding any of your words.
and that is 100% a fact.

Honestly, even if you had been somewhat of a decent friend and person of your word, things would have never got to this point.

and in reality, next week i will look back on this all and laugh and think "wow, that was intense, and perhaps irrational too," or maybe even "i should have never sent those intimate messages nick sent me to MMR or KJ, or even CW" or to any of those other ladies just to smile about what their (as well as Nick's reaction must have been)- but when i am calm, cool, and collected and thinking those thoughts.(and humorously laughing in hind sight)... and you are wondering why i caused you so much stress and trouble and why i did this all.... I am certain that you will not be laughing next week, when i am... and when all the intensity has died down.

You obviously have no clue how timing is of the essence on this one, lol. and you definitely do not know anything about me it all by the way poi are reacting and non-responding.... do you think that is going to make me stop? LOL, no, in fact it does the EXACT opposite (in case you have not noticed, it encourages me even more to make everybody aware that you are not a person of your word, and or not loyal, true, genuine, honest, or authentic).

when i cause all sorts of unnecessary drama and trouble for you and you want to try and address then or "eventually" i will seriously be like, "dude cash me outside how bout dat!"

nah, but really, i will be like "fool, i told you a thousand times... and you did not listen!!"
i'll be like "you must've had wax in your ears and are going blind in your eyes, because i could not be more clear with you on what all of this would lead to once it became apparent that you were truly never my friend and were filled with nothing but BS lies.

and then YOUR reputation is going to be the one on the line, and possibly eventually even your job, all because you did not want to uphold a friendship with me nor me a person of your word.... i find that highly fascinating.... nobody cares about my reputation, everybody is already filled with falsities in their mind about anything that has to do with me, what i am about, and what i stand for (including you), I represent and stand for honesty, fairness, truth, and being a person of my word... and i do not care what ANYBODY thinks... i will always uphold to those values and be true to them... all are values of which you obviously do not care about or uphold, so i can therefore give a shit if you care about how kind, thoughtful and intelligent i actually am....

your blatant avoidance of me after all your empty words and broken promises make it more clear than ever that you clearly do not understand or know a damn thing about me....

you're like digging yourself your own unnecessary issues by your lack of integrity and non-response....

because once i am calm, cool, and collected next week, i will not be able to take anything back that i do this week, and i truly do not think you will be happy about any of it (especially when you could have prevented it all so easily)...

and the most hilarious part of all of this is that all you had to do was get in touch with me and chat with me like a real man and person (and not the child that you are acting like by avoiding me) and literally none of this would have happened and i would have continued respecting and admiring you, as i had when we first met, and when i thought you were a decent person, of your word.

I find it intriguing how you want to throw all of that down the drain all for the sake of your ego; condescending and omniscient nature, as well as your pride.

Like i said Nick, suit yourself.... this is all going to affect you far more than it affects me. i'm used to people being ridiculous... and just did not expect all this blatant bs WRDKJB ridiculous from someone who i trusted, cared about, and considered a friend.

I am just merely a student struggling to live my life each day and not kill myself or commit suicide, but the lies, empty words, broken promises and condescending nature of instructors who claim to be my friend and who are supposed to be grown men and legitimate adult mentors and professionals.... is not helping my well-being or mental state of affairs in the least.....

i find it completely ignorant and careless of you to behave in these manners, when literally ALL of this could have been prevented... and you still will not respond to me... so you must not believe me when i say none of it matters to be and when i get in these modes i could care less about how any of this will affect you because it's obvious you never have a damn shit about me or cared about me in any type of way.... even as an instructor, person or friend....

i even specifically told you, verbatim, on several occasions:

"if you're my friend, truly - then you can know you can TRUST me 100%. that i will never intentionally hurt or attack you, frustrate you etc.

However, on the other hand, if you are not my friend, that is a different story and i can 100% not make those promises...."

You claimed to have understood, but you obviously did not because you have NEVER demonstrated any type of friendship to me, and when i directly asked you about when you have amongst several other things - of course, you did not have the decency nor dignity to respond (as per the usual).

as far as I am concerned, you were NEVER a friend to me, and have NEVER upheld a single DAMN word of yours....

I am not breaking any promises whatsoever... i told you if you were i friend to me then you would know that you could trust me with your life basically - 100%.

i also adamantly declared to you "However, on the other hand, if you are not my friend, that is a different story and i can 100% not make those promises...."

I am therefore not breaking any promises because you were never a friend to me. the EXACT OPPOSITE of a FRIEND actually, you were the anti-friend coming in disguise as a fraud facade.... and i feel for it too! and i fell for it hard.... and i greatly disrespect you because of it all as well as your definite lack of respect for your supposed friends!!!

As promised, I have revived the below messages from the grave, since you never read nor acknowledged ANY of it the first few times I sent it all, and not even a single response on any of it (likely because you do not know how to respond about all your false truths, empty words, and BS lies).

But since I am a person of my word (unlike you) and since I promised to revive this message from the dead and continue to send it until you actually acknowledge it.

Plus, I know this is part of the reason why you started shifting away from me and backing out of all your words in the first place; because I was able to see right through (and call you out on) all your BULLSHIT lies and denial - early on.... and you still continued to lie through your freaking teeth about it all, and continued to remain in denial.

Why can't you just acknowledge what I am saying to you, and man-up and admit to the fact that you were being pathetic and are indeed not a man of your word, whatsoever. And lmao, if you would have just been a decent person of your word, and even sometime of a real friend...none of this would have to this point, yet apparently, you cannot even demonstrate any sort of honest friendship – WHATSOEVER!

So, below is 10-pages of old message that you literally ignored and did not respond to AT ALL, with new commentary added on in Purple!

May 28th, 2018(via "Stocking" NVF; #Unfollow, LolnotLol")

"The Cool People" Club has OFFICIALLY lost its novelty and value... 100

What, are you WR now all of a sudden or something?? Lol

. I guess his wife is okay with all of that as long as they are on his 'cool ppl' list...

You might as well just add a bunch of 'duck lip' photos as your cover photo on TWTR, and add WR to 'the cool ppl' list too, while you're at it....

The two of you can start a giddy undergraduate schoolgirl club, become make-up affiliates, and have a photo booth for duck lip photos on site! 😊

I can picture it now! #so clearly 🙈🙈🙈

And JB will likely want in on it too! 😊

Ok, there's my writing about JB, we can check it off the checklist now, along with the previous commentary I've made about him here and there 😊😊

....

Hey, and while you guys are at it - why don't you get Gillespie in on the mix too, god forbid he gets left out on the undergraduate makeup affiliate duck face extravaganza!

Pffftt...

....

Also, this girl always popping up all over the place lmao and was ALWAYS on WR 'COOL PEEPS' 'duck face' lists....

You should seek her out, follow her on twitter, and add her to the cool ppl... you and WR can share lists:

I find this highly hilarious (and entertaining) that you do not take any of my other words of wisdom or advice, but when it comes to duck-lipped, cake-face 'make-up whores' you sure as hell do not hesitate to take my advice, seek out these chics, and follow them!!! Haha LMAO NICK YOU ARE SO RIDICULOUS! It totally tops the charts!

Cool ppl lists that is lol, of course! 😊

🤔😐😊. #barf #theNewCoolPPL

Don't forget to recruit JC the clown as well, I'm sure he would definitely come out of the woodworks for this project!

Ok, there's my writing about JC as well ✓

Done.

my response to your lame ass excuses (of much I will compile later):

"Haha. Yeah right that ridiculous girl has more tweets than Donald J Trump! And you love her school girl tweets lol.

Anybody that finds someone cool and intriguing that posts tweets about how much money they spend on make-up and thanking their boyfriend's ex-girlfriend for playing her role with all the makeup they more simply CANNOT be on my cool people list (even though I don't have a cool ppl list, because there is not many)

JC clown club perhaps but not any cool clubs"

...

And then that girl says stuff like: "If you're gonna try and play games with a girl over social media don't do it to the girl who literally got her degree to get a job in social media and knows the ins and outs of all social media platforms S/o to @ProfBenavidez for helping us swerve guys"

A couple tweets apart from: "Let your girl know where is hiring"

Lol it's like "ok sis, sorry bout you having to 'swerve' all them guys with your 'drop-dead gorgeous' painted on makeup Facadery (of that's what ppl are calling it nowadays) but how about let's do some maturing first." Haha. Some people's children

Lmao this are totally WR's types of undergrads that he'd follow around like a puppy dog.... no joke, and giggle at every pathetic and ridiculous thing they or 'she'. I can do an impression of him. I found it highly disgusting and annoying, didn't go to over half of his classes and 16-pages of the 26-page instructor evaluation (that o never submitted) is likely about that in and of itself.... his pathetic immaturity and 'pretty' undergraduate coeds lol - if that's what one wants to call them....

Anyways he joined the JB, JC, RD club with all the rest of those pathetic and disgusting fools that have to flirt with undergraduates and hand out A+'s to them in order to make them feel good about themselves and their lives complete and in attempts to get unassuming students to like them and buy them expensive damn shoes....

Trust me I can write a dossier on this topic alone.... haha, just didn't think I would be including your cool people in my research lol. Yes, I indeed will write this dossier; and you and your lies and excuses, and hypocrisy will be front and center of the enter paper, no doubt.

...or how Dk can respond to one of WR's duck lipped makeup caked dream girls about something utterly stupid and unimportant tweets through twitter, but he cannot respond to my important emails, just like WR or the rest of those fools!!! I still think it is hilarious that you felt the need to follow that bimbo cake-face Sarah McPhee after me telling you she was one of WR's and DK's cake-faced girls! LMAO about how you could not resist! YOU'RE SO RIDICULOUS!! #ASM at its finest!!!

What a bunch of immature clowns and we wonder why NM is at the bottom of the barrel of education, state-wide...FreakIn joke! Bunch of F ing giddy clowns roaming ASM!!!

Oh, and I definitely should not say *Unassuming students because I'm all those cases those students knew EXACTLY what they were doing.....!!!!

Especially in the JB, RD, JC, WR types of cases I even have a recent example of this (several) with all these undergrads that were up in arms about JC being gone...,

....
hEY - MAYBE that's why the 'make-up girl' bus videos was one of your faves!!! Haha.
It was one of your 'peeps!'

LOL – did not even remember sending this comment to you before, I thought yesterday to the UNM email was the first time I had sent it, but yeah, lo and behold, now we both know why the “Make-up Girl” video was your favorite.

....
I'm just sooo sick of seeing these immature men flirting with undergraduate students for the past 18+ years of my life..., it's like “ok ok we get it, you're ridiculous!” LMAO little did I know at this time on May 28th how much that YOU ARE one of “these immature men flirting with undergraduate students for the past 18+ years of my life.”

Not *you're as in you, but you in the general sense of ASM and probably academia all the same....

no that should have totally meant “*You're as in YOU,” because you are definitely one of the most ridiculous people I have met, no doubt!

I mean whether it's John Benavidez, or Rob Del Campo, Jim Cormier, Reilly White - you name it! This dudes for whatever reasons cannot help themselves to like these ridiculous undergraduate coeds and follow them around like “puppy dogs” giggling and liking everything they say and do....

LMAO and little did I know that NICK VINCENT FLOR was at the ABSOLUTLE TOP OF THE LIST OF THESE DISGUSTING ASS IMMATURE MEN who follow young girls around like puppy dogs!! #DISGUSTING!

#NICKSTrueColors , and you are 99% Reilly White that's for DAMN sure! Lmao, I find it funny how you tried to deny all of this only for it to come to light. WOW< you are actually the KING of giggling and acknowledging everything that immature and ridiculous kid did and posted.

I've seen it so much I'm utterly sick and tired of it....

FAR MORE TIRED OF IT THAN YOU WILL EVER KNOW!

Funny thing is, I've never experienced It myself though..., only observed it... even when I was an undergrad..., these fools would treat me a certain way (rudely and the exact posits hardly even ever acknowledging my work or my presence), and then go laugh and giggle and follow these kids around giving them A+'s for literally no reasons at all!!! I TRULY Did not know that I would be BLATANTLY observing this with my supposed new friend, who was obviously FULL OF NOTHING BUY SHIT AND LIES!!!

So yeah perhaps I just have a 'sad enough back story' or maybe I'm just not quite as naive, ridiculous, giggly and flirting as these kids.... but for some reason I have received the exact opposite response from the clowns (gladly).... but it's ridiculous to observe for two decades straight...

AND NOW I am receiving the exact opposite from this particular clown named Nick Vincent FLOR!!!

Trust me on this I have so many stories it would you barf.

And apparently, it would not make you barf, because your tweets in and of themselves to Katherine Anne Tarin itself, literally made me want to BARF... I was so disgusting by your blatant lies and denial!

Not kidding about the dossier, tome, novel etc... and I'm totally not kidding about this, but for some reasons you think I am!

I didn't know that was the point of academia!!! But apparently so!!

IT'S LITERALLY DISGUSTING I HONESTLY DO NOT KNOW HOW YOU LIVE WITH YOURSELF AND YOUR LIES!!!!

May 30th, 2018(via “JC.Files”)

Anyways, so those little girls, (especially the one in particular), reminded me of a blonder version of your little bimbo twitter make-up queen "COUSIN" who unfortunately has it so rough that she has to 'swerve' ALL the guys on social media.

I will repeat the quote again below since you blatantly ignored how it was BY FAR the most ridiculous thing I forced myself to read on TWITTER in 2018! 100%

"If you're gonna try and play games with a girl over social media don't do it to the girl who literally got her degree to get a job in social media and knows the ins and outs of all social media platforms... s/o to @ProBenavidez for helping swerve the guys"

a couple messages from "Let your girl know where is hiring" and then to see the way you and JB (both) respond to her, her tweets, and her comments... and like all her stupid ass shit ... it's like ewwww. And then I was like ewwwwww, 'totally WR status' types of cool peeps up in here.... #BARF And don't get me wrong, I know I said let's forget that whole convo ever happened, but trust me – I am NOT done with that ONE yet!!!! And probably won't be for awhile...

Lmao... and it will come back from the dead; no doubt, because I am totally convinced that you did not read the series of emails I sent you about that and that all those stupid-ass screen shots blocked all my VERY IMPORTANT content and that you were TOO busy defending yourself attempting that you were not 'flirting' to even pay attention to what I was actually saying!!!

Yes, that was truly the case, you did not read anything and were TOO DMAN BUSY defending attempting to defend yourself that you were not 'flirting' when that is utter BS because it is soooooo damn ridiculously obviously that you were flirting with that kid for going on at least 2-years.

I was really thrown off by the way you responded...

You went from first saying, "...over the years I've changed who the cool people are that I follow and I never take them off. Definitely many of them are not cool."

... followed immediately by "It used to be students and faculty. I definitely don't interact with those people though and they hardly tweet—just a way for me to 'snoop' on what they were doing back in the day."

and then when I called you out and was like, "haha, yeah right that ridiculous girl has more tweets than Donald J Trump! And you love her school girl tweets!"

...

Then your excuses start changing to, "Oh, that's one of my students. She posts silly things that I just 'like' because I know her sad back story."

....

And then when I point out that duh, it obviously was one of your student's and that was my entire point...and how ridiculous the tweets and flirting is lol....

And then after I tell you how I totally thought I had made my way to WR's page, you tell me that this ridiculous kid is BTW 'a graduate student,' haha.

and then when I say I thought makes it even more ridiculous and I gave her maybe 17 and no older than 21 and god help us all and about our education system etc. and intelligence level of 'graduate students' at UNM, based off her intelligent tweets (or lack thereof)

....

AND THEN, you even had the nerve to lie 'joke' to me and tell me this ridiculous bimbo of a kid is your COUSIN, and make me FEEL BAD, and think she has a traumatic brain injury and APOLOGIZE for the things I said, which elicited absolutely NO APOLOGY!!!

...

And then when you started sending me those silly screenshots STILL defending yourself telling me why you like all the stupid tweets that you do not 'agree with,' but just to flatter young co-eds, show you care, and acknowledge to current and former students that you are 'snooping' on their tweets, also that you don't like when people don't read your tweets, all WHILE you don't like or read any of MINE!!! Haha.... #TOTALWRMOVE !!! GEE, THANKS BUDDY!!!!

#MuchAppreciated

It's all good.... It was just all intriguing and eye-opening to me.... I was like "WHAAA?? This is the dude I'm all sprung on" and then it made me feel confused, as did your thread and series of excuses and lies even, there within!

Dude seriously though, I beg of you - please do not be a JC, JB, or RD!!!! I don't care how pretty, or how much cleavage, or how petty and ridiculous these (or even how smart or intelligent) these undergraduates, or supposedly in this case 'the graduate' students are, or how SAD their supposed bull-shit sob story is!!! YOU ARE TOTALLY A JC, JB, WR, and RD and I am highly disgusted that I somehow fell for you and all your BLATANT LIES!!!! #DISGUSTING

Because if you read any of my messages in that thread you would CLEARLY know that I take MAJOR ISSUE with these types of behaviors and it completely disgusts me... #COMPLETELYDISGUSTING

....

AND it has nothing to do with my own 'insecurities' either, that I wrote you about. Completely unrelated... and does not have to do with jealousy either.... More so annoyance than anything, but definitely not jealousy....

I have actually only felt the emotion of jealousy about 3 times in my entire life, and I felt it clearly, it was never towards a female for any reasons about what they have or how they look.

When I used to tell Reilly about how blatantly ridiculous and stupid he was acting around these girls, I think he thought I was jealous... and it's like "No, dude... I'm trying to help you. This has nothing to do with me. You look like and are acting like a giddy idiot, why?" ok, I did not say that directly, but it's like "no, I totally would never be jealous of any student who flirts with their professors to get a decent grade because they are not bright enough to do it with their intelligence." Nor definitely NOT of anybody who proudly posts on twitter about how much money she spends on make-up or thanking her little immature boyfriend and his petty ex for loving make-up so much and playing her role so that she does not have to waste ALL that time explaining to her boyfriend how important it is to her....

I will NEVER understand people who act or think in these ways. NEVER.

It's like pfffft. That's not jealousy... that's matter of fact, truthful and blunt observations. And then to see the way JB interacts with these kids, and to picture you as his co-teacher.... Idk, all those types of behaviors give me weird feelings and I find it all totally annoying, petty and disgusting.... (based on my own perceptions and past experiences)

It's like no, I would rather not associate myself, thx kindly.

I seriously wanted to follow Reilly White around with a mirror when I had him in class so I could reflect back to him how stupid and ridiculous he looked when he was flirting with this bimbo idiotic non-intelligent semi-decent looking ridiculous students... it's like "can you not see and feel yourself acting like a giddy idiot?" Really though, can people not feel themselves acting a certain way and doing and saying ridiculous things?? Hmm. Perplexing...

LMAO I bet you had several students in your class that wanted to follow you and John Benavidez around with a mirror and reflect back to you how pathological and ridiculous you guys appear following around these children like puppy dogs and flirting with the stupidest tweets of ALL TIME! I am 100% certain of this. I even find it disgusting in browsing through your cousin's tweets and literally every LAME ASS ACKNOWLEDGMENT RESPONSE OF YOURS, I think they are completely immature and disturbing.

Anyways, I will never understand that...

And like I said, I NEVER once flirted with ANY of my college professors I had for a class, not in undergraduate or graduate school alike....and, not to mention, I had to work my ass off for less than the grades I actually should have received and earned, each time... While all those other stupid-ass ridiculous dim-witted pretty bitches get treated like royalty by these immature bastards!!

< and all those same professors who "like" other people's stuff just for the sake of ridiculousness and sad sob stories all would give me the hardest time, and would not even acknowledge my presence...> It's like really, "F-OFF!!! Not you, but just what I have been blatantly observing right in front of my face (not covertly) for nearly 2-decades now.... NOT Sure why I said "NOT YOU" because NICK VINCENT FLOR is actually the KING of this!

Like I said, not sure if I was just not ridiculous enough, not cute or pretty enough, or just too smart and intimidating for those fools.... But I will definitely resend you that thread in its entirety again and again and again until you've proved to me that you actually read it, instead of just disregarding EVERYTHING I spent all that time writing and trying to explain, only to have you defending yourself about something so silly and ridiculous over and over again in very silly and strange ways, lol. This is the email where I am resending you this thread in its entirety (like I said I was going to and promised I would, until you prove you actually read it instead of defending yourself about something over and over again in really ridiculous and strange ways that made you come off as HIGHLY immature and pathetic! 100%

Also, I will write about JB on another email chain but just know - he may have not told me I had small thumbs nor even gave me that much attention in-and-of itself ... but in my mind, he is nothing but a Cormier character and that is why he has his die-hards, I think he's a bit disgusting and not attractive whatsoever.

Him and I had absolutely no rapport, he constantly smelled like cigarettes (which I despise and highly disgusts me), talked and smelled of alcohol often, and was just overall not very nice, kind, or appealing in anyways whatsoever....

I also do not like to associate you with him ... nor any of the little girls he flirts with (undergraduate or graduate) in person, at parties, or through any form of social media whatsoever, or another other platform where his stupid-ass students supposedly have to 'swerve' the guys and then have that CREEPER OL MAN to THANK!!! UTTER BULLSHIT!!!! 100%!!!! I guess she has both CREEPER RIDICULOUS OLD MEN TO THANK – NICK VINCENT FLOR and JOHN BENAVIDEZ! DEAR LORD, please watch over us and help us ALL!

I have not seen him in 12-years, but unless he has changed, I found him to be utterly disrespectful, nothing to look at, and extremely condescending and unapproachable. I've racked my brain for a single nice comment to say about the guy and I cannot think of any, other than me telling you that I would give him a chance if YOU somehow thought highly of him for some god-awful reasons unknown....

...

I also am quite certain it was his despicable face and energy that kept us from meeting in the first place, and I do not like to associate yours and his energies together.

BTW – fyi YOU 111% belong in the Cormier Files.... Little did I know how much you belong there, even much more so than others – do you belong in the JIM CORMIER files!!

June 9th, 2018(via “Disaster of a Day”)

I really am flattered by the fact that you think I am “special,”

But, then again, I also resort back to your ‘cool people’ list and I looked at your cousin’s page you were INDEED quite extremely responsive to that particular ‘student’ for QUITE an extensive period of time, ‘acknowledging’ just about every single one of her tweets and literally ‘responding’ to the most ridiculous tweets and I had ever read in quite a long time. Like literally for months you would respond to every single one of her tweets and they were all 100% braindead, childish, garbage school girl things (that not even her school girl friends would like, only you). I would not believe you would even ‘acknowledge’ if someone paid you to, unless for some reasons that ‘cool girl’ student was also “special” to you, so as I mentioned before, it kind of takes/took away from the “special” aspect and from the you having a “reputation for NOT responding to students” commentary. If you know what I mean, and as I have already mentioned previously.

Also, you never told me what the whole big sob story is... did ‘Aaron Carter’ not ask her out, or did her previously bf break up with her because she valued make-up more than life and personalities, or was it when he realized all that gunk washed off at nights? Lol

June 28th, 2018(via “You, and your cousin too” email)

And btw – you never did tell me you cousin’s sob story, but I am taking it from the looks of it that the sob story is that she dated a guy before she was 20-years old or so that did not treat the ‘make-up queen’ the way she should have been treated, and then some other girl (perhaps one did who did not value make-up over life) who the school boy said was ‘just his friend’ then after when he likely got tired of said make-up queen ‘attention whore persona’ decided the other girl was more than just a friend (and likely a much better catch, partner, and lover (than your cousin) that did not judge people’s personality’s by eyebrows or make-up or who go broke trying to look decent until your face is ‘blended’ so much it is no longer your face anymore...., and then the young boy likely ended up marrying the new naturally pretty ‘friend’ that did not need to cake make-up on in order to feel superior to others.....

it’s actually ironic because I am still not sure why I did it, but I expressed all my insecurities to you and you did not give it any respect whatsoever.... But I actually do feel bad for this girl because it’s obvious that girls that feel the need to cake on such intensive amounts of make-up (and then brag about it as their security shield) are typically the most insecure of all... but hey, no need for her to worry about that, right? Because she has Professor Nick F and Professor John B there to obsess over her, acknowledge every single social media tweet of hers, and make her feel better about herself after experiencing such horrid “sob stories” in life! Lucky girl indeed! and what an amazing duty and role for you and professor Benavidez to take on, but mostly YOU!!! lol you literally responded to 99.9999 of all this girl’s ridiculousness ...

it's became greatly apparent where all your priorities have been the past few years, and also why you are so busy to uphold your words, or the Ga-ship, the plans to work together, research, or anything else you said that meant nothing whatsoever!

And then, of course, to top it off, she also has anxiety, is insecure about herself, especially without those utterly fake and artificial eye-lashes and hair-color, (and the fact that she literally has no eye-lashes without those fake-ass gunk ones that children are calling eye-lashes now-a-days), and that other than her two former instructors that are obsessed with her and her highlighted face on fleek, lmao, then nobody would be giving her attention.

And then of course, Aaron Carter (whoever the F that is, lmao) has not followed her back yet, and she loves to brag about her drinking (of which you apparently LOVE) and how she will someday be famous and have a career on social media all because of Professor F and Professor Benavidez's training!?? LMAO

NICK – that is actually not called a “sob story” AT ALL - that is called life.... well, the very last part of the whole story with Prof F and Prof B supposedly getting the kid famous, well that does indeed sound a bit sob-story wish (for anybody to believe that), but I mean the part about her school girl boyfriend marrying somebody else or her having anxiety and being insecure, lmao – NICK that is NOT a sob story! Haha. If those are the “sob stories” that you are referring to like may you like, like like like away and everything she does or says, then these little children have obviously not experienced sob stories yet!!! And Wow, if these are what people are considering “sob stories” these days -then wow, just wow.

I find it disconcerting that nobody gives a shit about me or my actual real-life deep pain, and actual real trauma and “sob stories.” (Even you who pretended to and claimed to, and literally PROMISED to do anything to help – again all blatant lies). Pain that supposedly you cared about at first, but then your care faded just as quickly as you came into my life... I truly have never understood how people could be so blatantly lame and fake, and I truly never will. I find it heart-breaking and hurtful though

Even if I was still somewhat interested in you (which I am not because of what you have revealed to me), I would not even be able to respect you, simply because of the way you lie, take back all your words, and have blatant crushes (of which you are in denial about) on people that I would NEVER respect if my life depended on it. Truly.

NICKS TRUE COLORS HAVE SHOWN FORTH...

I also find it funny how accurate all of this was even before I knew the truth of it all, as well as your childish and immature DENIAL of it....
